

NATIONAL DISABILITY INSURANCE SCHEME — PSYCHOSOCIAL DISABILITY

643. Hon SALLY TALBOT to the Minister for Disability Services:

How many people with a psychosocial disability are receiving support and/or services as part of the Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way trials in —

- (a) the lower south west; and
- (b) the Cities of Cockburn and Kwinana?

Hon HELEN MORTON replied:

I thank the member for some notice of this question.

- (a) Based on data from the latest quarterly report extracted on 31 March 2015, 71 individuals.
- (b) The WA NDIS My Way trial has not yet commenced in Cockburn or Kwinana. That will occur on 1 July 2015.
