

POLICE — FRONTLINE OFFICERS

3148. Hon Colin Tincknell to the minister representing the Minister for Police:

Can the Minister please advise how many police officers are currently employed within the Western Australia Police Force and how many of those are assigned to frontline duties?

Hon Stephen Dawson replied:

The Western Australian Police Force advise:

As at 30 September 2020, 6 731 police officers (recruit to Commissioner) were employed within the Western Australia Police Force. Police officers may be directed to frontline duties when required. The number of operationally deployable officers being personally issued with multi-threat body armour is 6,230.
