

FAMILY AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE — COERCIVE CONTROL

666. Ms L. METTAM to the Attorney General:

I have a supplementary question. Will the government release before Parliament rises the findings from the statewide consultation that was undertaken last year; and, if so, when?

Mr J.R. QUIGLEY replied:

No, we will not do that before Parliament rises for this session. The government will consider the report of the Commissioner for Victims of Crime. Once we have considered that report, the government will release it with a response.
