

FISHERIES — DEPARTMENT — STAFF

3369. Hon Colin de Grussa to the minister representing the Minister for Fisheries:

I refer to question on notice 6284 asked in the Legislative Assembly, and to the 120 staff in the Department of Fisheries as of March 2017, and I ask:

- (a) how many of these staff are still employed for the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development;
- (b) how many of these staff took voluntary redundancies; and
- (c) how many of these staff resigned?

Hon Alannah MacTiernan replied:

Of the 120 regionally-based staff employed by the former Department of Fisheries as at 13 March 2017:

- (a) 98 are still employed by the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD).
- (b) 11 were issued and accepted a Voluntary Severance Offer.
- (c) 11 have either resigned, retired or transferred to another Government agency, and therefore are no longer employed by DPIRD.
