

PRISONS — CONTRABAND

1025. Mr S.K. L'ESTRANGE to the Minister for Corrective Services:

I have a supplementary question. The minister has had a massive prison breakout, he has lost track of dangerous sex offenders and now drugs are flowing into his prisons. When will he resign?

Mr W.J. Johnston interjected.

The SPEAKER: Minister for Mines and Petroleum, I call you to order for the first time. It is not a shouting match.

Mr F.M. LOGAN replied:

What a ridiculous proposition! The third shadow minister puts to me: what am I doing about drugs? I put this back to the Liberals, including a former minister: how many drug raids on prisons did they do in their eight-year term in office?

Several members interjected.

Mr F.M. LOGAN: None, and that says it all.
