

TELEVISION AND COMPUTER RECYCLING SERVICE — REGIONS

6236. Hon Sally Talbot to the Minister for Mental Health representing the Minister for Environment

I refer to the growing problem of electronic and electrical waste (e-waste), including televisions and computers and I ask, can the Minister advise what free television and computer recycling service (both drop off and collection) are available in Western Australia in each of the following regions —

- (a) Kimberley;
- (b) Pilbara;
- (c) Gascoyne;
- (d) Mid–West;
- (e) Goldfields–Esperance;
- (f) Wheatbelt;
- (g) Peel;
- (h) South West; and
- (i) Great Southern?

Hon HELEN MORTON replied:

- (a)–(c) None.
- (d) One drop-off facility at the Meru Waste Disposal Facility in the City of Greater Geraldton.
- (e)–(f) None.
- (g) One drop-off facility at the Waste Management Centre in the City of Mandurah.
- (h) Five drop-off facilities, at the City of Bunbury’s waste operations depot; Shire of Capel’s waste transfer station; Shire of Dardanup’s Banksia Road transfer station; Shire of Harvey’s Richardson Road landfill; and Bunbury Harvey Regional Council’s Stanley Road Waste Facility.
- (i) One drop-off facility at Fossicker’s Tip Shop in the City of Albany.
