

FAMILY AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OFFENDERS — GPS TRACKING

649. Ms L. METTAM to the Attorney General:

I have a supplementary question. Will the Attorney General commit to tabling the full evaluation—the report—before Parliament rises for the year?

Mr J.R. QUIGLEY replied:

I hope to, member; I certainly hope to. It is not a case of keeping it from the member; it is waiting for the final report to be prepared. I was told that that was going to be soon, and that answer was given by the Premier, I think, last week. We hope to be able to do so. It is certainly my intention to do so. I am pulling out all stops to get it to the Leader of the Liberal Party before we rise.
