

FIRE MANAGEMENT PRACTICES — DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND CONSERVATION

889. Hon SALLY TALBOT to the minister representing the Minister for Environment:

In light of the government's admission—it says last week, but it was actually a couple of weeks ago—in question without notice 1123 that information about the Department of Environment and Conservation's fire management practices had been inadvertently omitted from the last annual report and yearbook, will the minister now table that information?

Hon HELEN MORTON replied:

I assume the minister is referring to question without notice 798?

Hon Donna Faragher: Member—she's not a minister!

Hon HELEN MORTON: Okay; I assume the member —

Several members interjected.

Hon HELEN MORTON: — is referring to question without notice 798. This information will be included in the 2010–11 yearbook and will be published on the Department of Environment and Conservation's website as a supplement to the 2009–10 yearbook.
