REPORT OF THE JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON DELEGATED LEGISLATION

IN RELATION TO THE

CITY OF ARMADALE - SIGNS AMENDMENT LOCAL LAW 2008

1 OVERVIEW

- 1.1 The City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 was gazetted on 3 June 2008. It amends the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007 by deleting the previous definitions of “approval” and “Scheme” in that principal local law and inserting new definitions of those terms. These amendments fulfil an undertaking provided to the Joint Standing Committee on Delegated Legislation (the Committee) by the City of Armadale to rectify drafting defects in the principal law, which defects rendered that local law of no effect.
- 1.2 However, the City of Armadale has not rectified a further fundamental problem identified by the Committee: that is, in so far as it did no more than purport to enforce planning schemes prepared by the City of Armadale under the Town Planning and Development Act 1928, the Planning and Development Act 2005 and the Armadale Redevelopment Act 2001, the principal local law was not authorised or contemplated by empowering legislation. The City of Armadale declined to provide the Committee with an undertaking in respect of this authorisation issue.
- 1.3 While the drafting amendments introduced by the City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 may enable some sub-clauses of the principal local law (those which do not enforce the provisions of a planning scheme made under another Act) to become effective, the Committee is of the view that the amendments otherwise do no more than confer ostensible validity on a local law that is not authorised. The Committee considers that the Local Government Act 1995 does not authorise or contemplate that the local law-making powers conferred by section 3.5(1) will be utilised to amend ineffective legislation, other than to render that legislation effective (Committee’s Term of Reference 3.6(a)).
- 1.4 The Committee considered the circumstances of the City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 were not such that it could clearly discriminate between authorised and unauthorised provisions so as to recommend a partial disallowance.
- 1.5 The Committee, therefore, recommends disallowance of the City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 in total.

2 THE COMMITTEE'S INQUIRY

- 2.1 The City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 is Appendix 1. The City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007 is Appendix 2.
- 2.2 The City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007 was first considered by the Committee on 5 September 2007, when the Committee observed:
- drafting defects that rendered clauses attempting to deem approval for erection or display of a sign granted pursuant to the City of Armadale's planning schemes as approval for erection or display of a sign under the local law ineffective, with the consequence that the local law was rendered ineffective; and
 - that the local law appeared to do little more than create offences of not complying with approvals/conditions imposed under the City of Armadale's planning schemes and provide for fines or infringement notices to issue for offences created by the local law.
- 2.3 In the latter respect, the City of Armadale stated in the Explanatory Memorandum presented to the Committee that the main purpose of the local law was to create power to issue infringement notices for breach of provisions of its planning schemes relating to signs and advertising devices.
- 2.4 On 5 September 2007, the Committee resolved to give notice of motion for disallowance of the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007, require an undertaking to amend the drafting defects of the local law and advise the City of its concern that neither the Local Government Act 1995, nor the Planning and Development Act 2005, authorised the making of local laws for the purpose of enforcing provisions of a local planning scheme. The Committee wrote to the City on 11 September 2007 advising it of these matters and advising of the Committee's intent to raise the enforcement of local planning schemes through local laws with the relevant Minister.
- 2.5 After lengthy correspondence with the City of Armadale's solicitors, in which the Committee set out its concerns with the local law in light of the relevant legislation in detail, the Committee wrote to the City of Armadale on 2 November 2007 advising that its concerns had not been resolved. The Committee again required an undertaking to amend the identified drafting defects in the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007.
- 2.6 In that letter, the Committee also advised the City of Armadale of the preliminary results of its inquiry into the larger question of whether a local law that in substance did no more than enforce provisions of a planning scheme was authorised by empowering legislation, and that its inquiries on this question were continuing.

- 2.7 The City of Armadale provided an undertaking on 8 November 2007 to amend the drafting defects in the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007.¹ In light of this undertaking, and the fact that its inquiry on the outstanding issue was not likely to be completed prior to debate of the motion for disallowance, the Committee resolved on 14 November 2007 to seek leave to remove the motion for disallowance of the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007. The House granted that leave. The City of Armadale was advised that removal of the notice for disallowance did not signify the end of the Committee's inquiry.
- 2.8 On 19 December 2007, the Committee advised the City of Armadale that it had concluded that the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007 was not authorised by the Local Government Act 1995, the Planning and Development Act 2005 or any other legislation. The Committee required an undertaking to delete those clauses in the local law that attempted to enforce provisions of the City's planning schemes.
- 2.9 By letter dated 1 February 2008, the City of Armadale advised the Committee that it "declined" to proceed with the additional amendments required by the Committee as to do so would "effectively render[s] the Local Law unworkable". The Committee pointed out that invalidity was not cured by maintenance of invalid provisions in a local law.

3 LEGISLATION

- 3.1 The relevant legislation and conclusions of the Committee are set out in detail in its Report No. 28 Local Laws Regulating Signs and Advertising Devices.
- 3.2 In summary, the Committee concluded that the City of Armadale Signs Local Laws 2007 was:
- not authorised by the Local Government Act 1995, which only confers power on local governments to make local laws in respect of functions local governments perform pursuant to that Act - whereas responsibility for planning and development was conferred on local governments by the Planning and Development Act 2005;
 - not authorised by the Planning and Development Act 2005, which confers no power on local governments to make local laws in respect of planning and development matters; and
 - contrary to section 43(1) of the Interpretation Act 1984 and section 3.7 of the Local Government Act 1995, in that it was in conflict with the Planning and Development Act 2005 which authorises and contemplates enforcement of local planning schemes solely through the provisions of that Act, and subsidiary instruments made under that Act, not through local laws made by local governments.

3.3 The City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 does not address the major defect identified by the Committee. It therefore seeks to amend a local law that is, in the opinion of the Committee, overwhelmingly of no effect.

3.4 The Committee is of the opinion that the Local Government Act 1995 does not authorise or contemplate the making of local laws that merely amend an ineffective local law without curing the defects leading to that lack of effect.

4 GOVERNOR'S REPEAL

4.1 The Committee notes that pursuant to section 3.17(a) of the Local Government Act 1995, the Governor has power to amend or repeal a local law.

4.2 The Committee recommends that the Minister for Local Government recommend that the Governor repeal the City of Armadale Signs Local Law 2007.

Recommendation 1: The Committee recommends that the City of Armadale - Signs Amendment Local Law 2008 be disallowed

Recommendation 2: The Committee recommends that the Minister for Local Government recommend that the Governor repeal the City of Armadale Signs Local Law 2007.
