NON-GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

1. Road Safety Council

Hon Jim Chown to move —

That this House acknowledges the following —

- (1) The Road Safety Council's proposal to lower all Western Australian speed limits by 10 kilometres per hour is unacceptable to the State's motoring public and to the Legislative Council; and
- (2) The Road Safety Council ought to instead refocus its endeavours to alleviate road trauma and deaths by the following approaches —
 - (a) implementing and requiring a more comprehensive training regime for learner drivers;
 - (b) ensuring that all road black spots are funded and rectified;
 - (c) urging the Government to continue to build passing lanes on all major highways and to fund the $900 million maintenance shortfall on the State's roads; and
 - (d) encouraging the Government to include driving theory and practice as an essential element of the education curriculum.

Consideration in committee of Legislative Assembly Message No. 124 as follows —

Madam President

The Legislative Assembly acquaints the Legislative Council that it has considered the amendments made by the Legislative Council in the Bail Amendment (Persons Linked to Terrorism) Bill 2018, has agreed to Amendment No. 2; and has disagreed to Amendment No. 1 and substituted a new amendment in its place, as set forth in the Schedule annexed.

Acting Speaker

Mr T.J. Healy

Legislative Assembly Chamber

Perth, 9 May 2019

Schedule showing the amendment substituted by the Legislative Assembly for the amendment made by the Legislative Council in the Bail Amendment (Persons Linked to Terrorism) Bill 2018.

No. 1

Amendment disagreed to and the following amendment substituted —

Clause 11

Page 8, after line 6 — To insert:

66D. Annual report to include information about application of s. 66C

(1) In this section —

accountable authority means the accountable authority, as defined in the Financial Management Act 2006 section 3, of the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of this Act;

protected information means information the disclosure of which would contravene a written law or an order of a court;

sensitive information means information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected —

- (a) to prejudice national security; or
 - (b) to endanger a person's life or physical safety; or
 - (c) to threaten significant damage to infrastructure or property; or
 - (d) to prejudice a criminal investigation; or
 - (e) to reveal intelligence-gathering methodologies, investigative techniques or technologies or covert practices; or
 - (f) to enable the discovery of the existence or identity of a confidential source of information relevant to law enforcement.
- (2) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), the accountable authority must, in each annual report submitted under the Financial Management Act 2006 Part 5 Division 2, include information relating to action taken under section 66C(1) in proceedings on a case for bail in the financial year to which the annual report relates (reportable information).
- (3) Reportable information must, without disclosing terrorist intelligence information, specify —
- (a) the number of proceedings in which action was taken under section 66C(1); and
 - (b) in each of those proceedings whether the accused had access to the terrorist intelligence information received by the judicial officer and whether —
 - (i) evidence by or on behalf of the accused was received; and
 - (ii) argument by or on behalf of the accused was heard.
- (4) Prior to submitting an annual report, the accountable authority must give a copy of the reportable information they propose to include in the annual report to the Attorney General and the Commissioner of Police.
- (5) The Commissioner of Police must advise the Attorney General whether any of the reportable information, in the Commissioner's opinion, is or is likely to be sensitive information.
- (6) A judicial officer may advise the Attorney General of any reportable information that, in the judicial officer's opinion, is or is likely to be protected information.
- (7) If the Attorney General is, on advice provided under subsection (5) or (6), satisfied that some or all of the reportable information is sensitive information or protected information, the Attorney General must direct the accountable authority to —
- (a) exclude the information from the annual report; and
 - (b) insert a statement in the annual report to the effect that information has been excluded from the report under this section.
- (8) The accountable authority must comply with a direction under subsection (7).
