

CORRECTIVE SERVICES — JUVENILE DETAINEES

177. Mr P. Papalia to the Minister for Corrective Services:

- (1) How many juvenile offenders were serving community work orders (community based orders) under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 6 September 2008?
- (2) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (3) How many were males?
- (4) How many youth community workers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (5) How many of these youth community workers were on sick or stress leave at this time?
- (6) How many adult offenders were serving community work orders under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 6 September 2008?
- (7) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (8) How many were males?
- (9) How many community work officers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (10) How many of these community work officers were on sick or stress leave at this time?
- (11) How many adult offenders were on parole under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 6 September 2008?
- (12) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (13) How many were males?
- (14) How many community corrections officers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (15) How many of these community corrections officers were on sick or stress leave at this time?

Mr J.M. Francis replied:

- (1) On 6 September 2008, there were 739 young people (juveniles) serving community corrections orders. Of those 739, 412 had a community work component included in an order.
- (2) Of these 739 young people, 110 were females. Of those, 52 had a community work component included in an order.
- (3) Of these 739 young people, 626 were males. Of those, 359 had a community work component included in an order. There are three cases where gender is not recorded.
- (4) On 6 September 2008, there were 117 ‘youth community workers’ (Youth Justice Officers) employed. It is noted that this includes Senior Youth Justice Officers and Youth Justice Officers.
- (5) The Department’s HR system shows that of the 117 ‘youth community workers’ (Youth Justice Officers) employed at this time, one was on sick leave. There is no provision for “stress leave” under the Public Service Award 1992.
- (6) On 6 September 2008, there were 5561 adults serving community corrections orders. Of those, 1742 had a community work component included in an order.
- (7) Of these 5561 adults, 1226 were females. Of those, 451 had a community work component included in an order.
- (8) Of these 5561 adults, 4335 were males. Of those, 1291 had a community work component included in an order.
- (9) On 6 September 2008, there were 42 Community Work Officers (CWOs) employed.
- (10) The Department’s HR system shows that of the 42 CWOs employed at this time, one was on sick leave. There is no provision for “stress leave” under the Public Service Award 1992.
- (11) On 6 September 2008, there were 1305 adults serving early release orders.
- (12) Of these 1305 adults, 112 were females.
- (13) Of these 1305 adults, 1193 were males.
- (14) On 6 September 2008, there were 238 Community Corrections Officers (CCOs) employed.
- (15) The Department’s HR system shows that of the 238 CCOs employed at this time, one was on sick leave. There is no provision for “stress leave” under the Public Service Award 1992.