

LICENSED SETTLEMENT AGENTS — COMPULSORY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

595. Hon KATE DOUST to the Minister for Commerce:

In relation to compulsory professional development training and licensed settlement agents —

- (1) For the period ending 30 June 2012 —
  - (a) what is the percentage of the industry that has completed its CPD requirements;
  - (b) what is this as an actual number;
  - (c) please provide the name of the registered training organisation and the percentage of the industry trained by that RTO; and
  - (d) what was the percentage at each quarter for 2011?
- (2) In relation to the RTOs that deliver the CPD training for 2011, please provide the name of the RTO and the percentage of the industry trained by that RTO?

Hon SIMON O'BRIEN replied:

I thank the honourable member for notice of this question, which was given on 14 August.

- (1) As at 30 June 2012 —
  - (a) Twenty-seven per cent of licensed settlement agents had completed their CPD requirements.
  - (b) One hundred and fourteen licensed settlement agents had completed their CPD requirements.
  - (c) The Australian Institute of Conveyancers of WA has provided 100 per cent of training.
- (1)(d) and (2) This detailed information could not be ascertained in the time available. I ask the honourable member to place this part of the question on notice.
