

CORRECTIVE SERVICES — JUVENILE OFFENDERS

178. Mr P. Papalia to the Minister for Corrective Services:

- (1) How many juvenile offenders were serving community work orders under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 20 January 2013?
- (2) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (3) How many were males?
- (4) How many youth community workers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (5) How many of these youth community workers were on sick or stress leave at this time?
- (6) How many adult offenders were serving community work orders under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 20 January 2013?
- (7) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (8) How many were males?
- (9) How many community work officers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (10) How many of these community work officers were on sick or stress leave at this time?
- (11) How many adult offenders were on parole under supervision of the Corrective Services Department on 20 January 2013?
- (12) Of these offenders, how many were females?
- (13) How many were males?
- (14) How many community corrections officers were employed by the Department at this time?
- (15) How many of these community corrections officers were on sick or stress leave at this time?

Mr J.M. Francis replied:

- (1) On 20 January 2013 there were 738 young people (juveniles) serving community corrections orders. Of those, 437 had a community work component included in an order.
- (2) Of these 738 young people, 119 were females. Of those, 68 had a community work component included in an order.
- (3) Of these 738 young people, 618 were males. Of those, 369 had a community work component included in an order. There is one case where gender is not recorded.
- (4) On 20 January 2013, there were 131 “youth community workers” (Youth Justice Officers and Senior Youth Justice Officers) employed.
- (5) Of the 131 “youth community workers” (Youth Justice Officers and Senior Youth Justice Officers) employed at this time, one was on sick leave. There is no provision for “stress leave” under the Public Service Award 1992.
- (6) On 20 January 2013, there were 3995 adults serving community corrections orders. Of those, 1043 had a community work component included in an order.
- (7) Of these 3994 adults, 917 were females. Of those, 263 had a community work component included in an order.
- (8) Of these 3994 adults, 3078 were males. Of those, 780 had a community work component included in an order.
- (9) On 20 January 2013, there were 39 Community Work Officers (CWOs) employed.
- (10) The Department’s HR system shows that of the 39 CWOs employed at this time, no one was on sick leave. There is no provision for “stress leave” under the Public Service Award 1992.
- (11) On 20 January 2013, there were 455 adults serving early release orders.
- (12) Of these 455 adults, 73 were females.
- (13) Of these 455 adults, 382 were males.
- (14) On 20 January 2013, there were 248 Adult Community Corrections Officers (CCOs) employed.

- (15) The Department's HR system shows that of the 248 CCOs employed at this time, two were on sick leave. There is no provision for "stress leave" under the Public Service Award 1992.