

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND FOOD — KALGOORLIE — LIVESTOCK INSPECTORS

989. Hon NIGEL HALLETT to the Minister for Agriculture and Food:

- (1) What are the current manning levels of hands-on livestock inspectors working at the Department of Agriculture and Food quarantine facility in Kalgoorlie, and how long have these manning levels been in existence?
- (2) Please outline the experience of hands-on inspectors and the time spent in this role. What is the process for staffing and level of experience required at this facility?
- (3) Please detail the future manning levels and succession plan for the operation of the livestock facility at Kalgoorlie.

Hon KEN BASTON replied:

I am sorry; I do not have the answer for that question at this stage. If it comes in, I will give it to the honourable member.
