

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S HEALTH STRATEGY

1241. Hon DONNA FARAGHER to the Leader of the House representing the Minister for Women's Interests:

I refer to the answer provided to question without notice 711 asked on 29 August 2018, which states —

... it is understood that a whole-of-government approach to women's policy is proposed ...

- (1) Has this work commenced; and, if not, when will it commence?
- (2) Will the minister list the stakeholders who will be consulted as part of the development of the policy?
- (3) If yes to (1), when will the work be completed and will it be made public?

Hon SUE ELLERY replied:

I thank the honourable member for some notice of the question.

I note that this information was provided as at 31 October. I understand it is still current.

- (1) Yes. Planning for Western Australia's 10-year women's strategy is currently underway.
- (2) Planning for the strategy includes an open consultation process. Members of the community, not-for-profits, private sector and government can contribute.
- (3) The women's strategy will be a public document and made available on completion.
