

NON-GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS — NEW FROM 2009

7141. Mr P. PAPALIA to the Minister for Education:

- (1) What new non-Government schools were approved in the 2009, 2010 and 2011 calendar years?
- (2) Did the Minister receive advice on the likely impact of the establishment of these schools on enrolments or the viability of surrounding Government and non-Governments schools; and
  - (a) from whom did the Minister receive this advice; and
  - (b) did the Minister accept the advice on each occasion?

Dr E. CONSTABLE replied:

- (1) The Member should refer to the Department of Education Services' Annual Reports for the calendar years 2009, 2010 and 2011.

In addition:

- St Augustine's Classical Christian College was approved 24 November 2011
- Hocking Catholic Primary School was approved 20 December 2011

- (2) Yes.
  - (a) Advice on the planning and approval for non-government schools was provided by the then Non-Government Schools Planning Advisory Committee (NGSPAC).
  - (b) Yes.