

MARINE PARKS AND RESERVES AUTHORITY — EXECUTIVES

2008. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

With regard to the Marine Parks and Reserves Authority (MPRA), I ask:

- (a) did the Minister meet with the MRPA board and/or the Chairman prior to 1 July 2013, and if so, how many times;
- (b) what was the level of remuneration paid to the Chairman;
- (c) what level of remuneration was paid to board members;
- (d) since 1 July 2012 how many times have senior executives of the MPRA travelled for business purposes, to where and at what cost;
- (e) have board members travelled on MRPA business in the past three years, and if so, to where, and at what cost;
- (f) what was the rate of staff absenteeism in the MRPA in 2012–13;
- (g) how many officers in the MPRA were granted study leave in the past twelve months and for what total amount of time;
- (h) have there been any reported instances of theft, fraud or corruption by staff since 1 July 2012;
- (i) if yes to (h), how many and what were the circumstances;
- (j) how many complaints of sexual harassment, bullying or intimidation have been lodged by staff since 1 July 2012; and
- (k) how many full-time equivalent positions were not filled as at 1 July 2012 in the MPRA?

Mr A.P. Jacob replied:

- (a) Yes. Twice.
- (b) $20 500 per annum
- (c) $8 100 per annum
- (d) Nil
- (e) Yes. Broome and Exmouth at a cost of $23 146.
- (f) Nil. The MPRA is serviced by the Department of Parks and Wildlife.
- (g)–(h) Nil
- (i) Not applicable.
- (j)–(k) Nil.