

MORLEY POLICE STATION

327. Mrs M.H. ROBERTS to the Minister for Police:

I ask a supplementary question. Why does this Liberal election advertisement say that Morley Police Station will be completed in May 2013; and when will the 50 extra officers be there?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

As I said earlier, and perhaps if the member was listening instead of talking —

Mrs M.H. Roberts interjected.

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: Oh; here she goes again! I do not think the member's ears work when her mouth is moving.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Members! We have had our bit of fun. The minister.

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: In 2014, I expect that the upgrade of Morley Police Station will be completed. As part of that process, it will have the capacity to hold 80 police officers, whereas at the moment it holds 30.

Mrs M.H. Roberts: When?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: It is 2014—did anyone not hear that?—2014, consistent with what I said in this place last year.

The SPEAKER: Have you finished, minister?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: Yes, I have indeed.
