

PUBLIC TRANSPORT AUTHORITY — PARKING INFRINGEMENT TICKETS

4968. Hon Ken Travers to the Minister for Finance representing the Minister for Transport

I refer to your advice that the Public Transport Authority (PTA) has instructed their officers to stop issuing parking infringements using the form that refers to By-law 80, and ask —

- (1) Why have officers been instructed to stop using these forms?
- (2) Does the PTA still consider they are valid infringement forms?
- (3) How many unused infringement notices referring to By-Law 80 did the PTA have when they instructed officers to stop using them?
- (4) What has happened to the unused infringement notices that refer to By-Law 80?

Hon SIMON O'BRIEN replied:

The Public Transport Authority advises as at 8 November 2011:

- (1) To avoid any future confusion to the public.
- (2) Yes
- (3) The Public Transport Authority had approximately 1700 unused infringement notices.
- (4) They have been destroyed in accordance with the Public Transport Authority's document disposal procedures.
