

VOLUNTEER FIRE SERVICE — FORRESTFIELD

1978. Mr D.J. Kelly to the Minister for Emergency Services:

I refer the Minister to the Government's decision to establish a new Volunteer Fire Service located in Forrestfield and ask:

- (a) on what date was the new entity established;
- (b) on what date did the new entity become operational i.e. that it was capable of attending fires;
- (c) how many members does the new entity currently have; and
- (d) on how many occasions has the new entity been mobilised to attend to fires and for each occasion what was the date, where was the fire, how many appliances were mobilised, how many volunteers were mobilised and for how many hours?

Mr J.M. Francis replied:

The Department of Fire and Emergency Services (DFES) advises:

- (a)–(c) Please refer to Legislative Council Question without Notice 226 answered 18 March 2014.
- (d) [See paper 1584.]
