

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION ACT — APPEALS PROCESS

1866. Mr C.J. Tallentire to the Minister for Environment:

I refer to the Office of the Environmental Protection Authority and ask does the Minister propose to address procedural weaknesses of the appeals process under the Environmental Protection Act?

Mr A.P. Jacob replied:

I consider that the appeals process under the Environmental Protection Act provides a rigorous, independent and efficient mechanism for input into the environmental decision making process.
