

SOUTH WEST DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION — REGIONAL INVESTMENT BLUEPRINT

647. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Agriculture and Food representing the Minister for Regional Development:

I refer to the South West Development Commission 2012–13 Annual Report and the references it contains to the regional investment blueprint, and I ask:

- (a) what is the regional investment blueprint;
- (b) the report states that $118,641 was spent on this in 2012–13, is the blueprint now complete;
- (c) if yes to (b), has it been publicly released and if it hasn't, when will it be;
- (d) if no to (b), when will it be completed and will any further costs be incurred to complete it;
- (e) how does the regional investment blueprint relate to the South West regional blueprint;
- (f) what is the total cost of the South West regional blueprint; and
- (g) what is the total cost of all blueprints being produced by the South West Development Commission?

Hon Ken Baston replied:

- (a) The regional investment blueprint is an aspirational document setting out a strategy for regional development within the region.
- (b) No.
- (c) Not applicable.
- (d) (i) 28 February 2014.
(ii) Yes.
- (e) There will be one document titled South West Regional Blueprint.
- (f)–(g) Not available until document is finalised.
