

TUNG TRAN

206. Mrs M.H. ROBERTS to the Minister for Police:

I ask a supplementary question. Can the minister explain to this house why it took WA Police 12 months before it decided to drop the charges? Why did it drop the charges?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

Once again, the member for Midland has not been listening to my answer. I said that I was not prepared to discuss this situation —

Mrs M.H. Roberts interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Midland!

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: — until I was satisfied that the negotiations between WA Police and Mr Tran and his team had been finalised.

Mrs M.H. Roberts interjected.

The SPEAKER: Right. That concludes question time.
