

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES — GIFTS, HOSPITALITY,
TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION

4483. Mr M. McGowan to the Minister representing the Attorney General; Minister for Commerce:

For each department, agency and government trading enterprise within the Minister's portfolio of responsibilities, I ask in regard to the registration of the receipt of all gifts, benefits, hospitality, accommodation and travel by officers:

- (a) what was the nature of the gift, benefit, hospitality, accommodation or travel received;
- (b) what was the date of receipt of each gift, benefit, hospitality, accommodation or travel;
- (c) what is the name of the individual, organisation or private company that offered the gift, benefit, hospitality, accommodation or travel;
- (d) what is the estimated individual value of gift, benefit, hospitality, accommodation or travel; and
- (e) does the organisation have any commercial or financial relationship with the individual, organisation or private company that offered the gift, benefit, hospitality, accommodation or travel and if so, what is the nature of that commercial or financial relationship?

The Gifts, Benefits and Other Rewards Policy form part of the Department of the Attorney General's Fraud and Corruption Control Plan. The Policy provides that where a gift, benefit or other reward with a value in excess of $25 has been offered, the business area must ensure that the item is included on the Department's Gift Register and that utilisation should not occur prior to the approval of the delegated authority. Benefits include hospitality, access to training, events and functions.

Officers from the Department of the Attorney General accepted the following gifts from private companies or individuals relating to hospitality and invitation to an event between 15 September 2014 and 12 August 2015.
