

WOMEN'S INTERESTS — AGENCIES — VOLUNTARY TARGETED SEPARATION SCHEME

785. Hon Martin Aldridge to the Leader of the House representing the Minister for Women's Interests:

I refer to the Voluntary Targeted Separation Scheme (VTSS) and with respect to public sector agencies under your direction, I ask:

- (a) how many offers have been made to public sector employees per month, per agency, since the scheme's commencement;
- (b) of those identified in (a), how many per month, per agency have been accepted by employees;
- (c) of those identified in (b), how many employees have departed the public sector per month, per agency arising from the VTSS; and
- (d) what specific targets has the Government set for each public sector agency under the VTSS?

Hon Sue Ellery replied:

(a)–(d) Please refer to Legislative Council Question on Notice 823.
