

JUBILEE RESERVE, EDEN HILL — DRUG HOUSE

485. Mr D.J. KELLY to the Minister for Police:

I have a supplementary question. The minister says that it could take six to eight months. This has been going on for years. Why is the minister happy to talk tough about meth on the front of the paper, but she has a drug house operating under her nose and nothing is being done? When will it stop?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

As I said, police need to establish patterns. What often happens with these houses is people —

Mr D.J. Kelly interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Bassendean, I call you to order for the first time. Through the Chair, please—quickly.

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: People will often put one complaint into police and they will think their civic duty is done.

Mr D.J. Kelly interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Bassendean!

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: Police need to establish trends in behaviour. As the member well knows, should the Turnbull government be re-elected, Jeremy Quinn and Michael Keenan —

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Right; I want you to address this thing and I want it finished. You have 10 seconds.

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: As I said, $100 000 has been promised to the Town of Bassendean so that it can put some CCTV projects in place. I would put to the Town of Bassendean that Jubilee Reserve would be a very good reserve in which to invest that CCTV expenditure.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Bassendean, I call you to order for the second time.
