

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES —
OVERSEAS TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT OFFICE STAFF

8417. Mr M. McGowan to the Minister for Police; Road Safety

For each department or agency within the Minister's portfolios, does the agency have any staff located in any of Western Australia's overseas Trade and Development Offices; and if so

- (a) for each such staff member:
- (i) in what office are they located;
 - (ii) what is their position and public service level;
 - (iii) what is the total budgeted amount, including salary, accommodation and any other costs, to have the staff member located in the overseas office; and
 - (iv) does the agency make any funding contribution to the running costs of the office, and if so how much?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

WA Police

Western Australia Police does not have staff located in an overseas Trades and Development Office.

Office of Road Safety

The Office of Road Safety is administratively supported by Main Roads WA and as such the response will be included in the MRWA response under the Minister for Transport.
