

CRIMINAL CODE AMENDMENT ACT 2009 — MANDATORY SENTENCING

52. Mrs M.H. ROBERTS to the Minister for Police:

I have a supplementary question. The minister said in her answer that she had not read the Crime Research Centre report. I note that the police union in its report states that the author has recommended that publishing and distributing the research, including a list of identified risk factors, could reduce officers' chances of being involved in an assault. Given that was a recommendation of the report that the minister has not read and given that that is referred to in the police union report, will the minister table the report?

The SPEAKER: Member for Midland, this is not a supplementary question. If you want to ask a supplementary question, can members ask a succinct supplementary question?

Mrs M.H. ROBERTS: Thank you for your advice, Mr Speaker.

Will the minister table the report of the Crime Research Centre of the University of Western Australia that was paid for by the Office of Crime Prevention?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

I think the member has answered the question. It is not my report to table. The report was not commissioned by me. It was not commissioned by the government. It is not my report to table.

Mrs M.H. Roberts interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Midland!

Mrs L.M. Harvey interjected.

The SPEAKER: Minister!
