

PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT ACT — REQUESTS FOR REPRESENTATION

1293. Hon BEN DAWKINS to the minister representing the Minister for Planning:

I refer to yesterday's answer to question without notice 1262 and thank the minister for inviting me to ask a more specific question.

My specific question is how many times has an aggrieved person made a representation to the minister under section 211(1)(a) of the Planning and Development Act for the following periods: the reasonable time frame of the last six months; if not, the last six weeks; and, if not, the last six working days?

Hon JACKIE JARVIS replied:

The following response has been provided by the Minister for Planning.

Within the last six weeks, the minister has received two requests under section 211 of the Planning and Development Act 2005, both from the honourable member himself.
