

STANDING COMMITTEE ON PROCEDURE AND PRIVILEGES — SIXTY-FIRST REPORT

Notice of Motion

Hon Nick Goiran gave notice that at the next sitting of the house he would move —

That this house —

- (a) expresses its appreciation to the members and staff responsible for the drafting, tabling and publishing of the sixty-first report of the Standing Committee on Procedure and Privileges;
- (b) is concerned that good faith negotiations between the committee and the Corruption and Crime Commission ceased inexplicably;
- (c) notes that the committee's audit reveals that 1 120 privileged documents were provided without parliamentary approval by the government to the CCC;
- (d) reasserts that draft parliamentary speeches, motions and questions are subject to parliamentary privilege in the same way as confidential parliamentary committee material such as committee deliberations and draft report recommendations; and
- (e) encourages the CCC to avail itself forthwith of the opportunity to access the more than 450 000 non-privileged records.
