70C. Search notice to be given after police officer does basic search

- (1) This section applies if a police officer —
 - (a) has done a basic search of a person under section 70A(4)(a); and
 - (b) has exercised any of the powers referred to in section 63(1)(b), (c) or (d) in doing the basic search.
- (2) The police officer must give the person a notice (a search notice) that complies with subsection (4).
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply —
 - (a) if it is not reasonably practicable to give the person a search notice; or
 - (b) if the person is offered a search notice and does not accept it.
- (4) A search notice complies with this subsection if it sets out the prescribed information in relation to the powers in section 70A that may be exercised by a police officer, including where and when those powers may be exercised.

70D. Publication of information about prescribed areas and declared areas

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if —
 - (a) regulations prescribe an area for the purposes of section 70A(1)(a); or
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police declares an area under section 70B(1).
- (2) The Commissioner of Police must —
 - (a) publish in a newspaper circulating throughout the State general information about the area that has been prescribed or declared; and
 - (b) make detailed information about that area available to the public on a website maintained by the Commissioner.
- (3) The validity of the regulations or the declaration is not affected by a failure to comply with subsection (2).

70E. Declarations to be laid before Parliament

The Minister must cause a copy of a declaration made under section 70B(1) to be laid before each House of Parliament within 14 sitting days of that House after the declaration is made.

70F. Department's annual report to include information about exercise of section 70A powers

- (1) In this section —

Department means the department of the Public Service principally assisting the Minister in the administration of this Act.

- (2) The annual report submitted by the accountable authority of the Department under the Financial Management Act 2006 Part 5 must include the prescribed information about each exercise of the powers in section 70A during the relevant financial year.

70G. Review of sections 70A to 70F

- (1) The Minister must —
 - (a) appoint a person (the reviewer) to carry out an independent review of the operation and effectiveness of sections 70A to 70F as soon as is practicable after —
 - (i) the second anniversary of the commencement of the Criminal Investigation Amendment Act 2009 section 5; and
 - (ii) the fourth anniversary of that commencement;
 and
 - (b) for each review to be carried out under paragraph (a), cause the name of the reviewer to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as is practicable after the reviewer is appointed.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1)(a), the reviewer must consider in the course of carrying out the review —
 - (a) the purposes of sections 70A and 70B, as referred to in section 70AA(2); and
 - (b) the effect of the operation of section 70A on the public in the areas where the powers in that section have been exercised; and
 - (c) any views expressed by the public that relate to the exercise of those powers; and
 - (d) the effect of the exercise of those powers on the relationship between the public and police officers.
- (3) As soon as is practicable after completing the review, the reviewer must prepare a report based on the review and give the report to the Minister.
- (4) The Minister must cause a copy of the report to be laid before each House of Parliament within 3 months after receiving it.

70H. Expiry of sections 70AA to 70H

This section and sections 70AA to 70G expire on the fifth anniversary of the commencement of the Criminal Investigation Amendment Act 2009 section 5.
