Western Australia

Coroners Act 1996

An Act to establish the office of State Coroner, to provide for a State coronial system to inquire into Western Australian deaths, to repeal the *Coroners Act 1920*², to amend certain other Acts and for related purposes.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Coroners Act 1996*¹.

2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on such day as is fixed by proclamation¹.

3. Terms used

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears — agency has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of the Public Sector Management Act 1994;

coroner includes the State Coroner and the Deputy State Coroner; coroner's investigator means a person referred to in section 14;

coroner's registrar means a person referred to in section 12;

court means the Coroner's Court of Western Australia established under section 5;

death includes suspected death;

Deputy State Coroner means the person appointed under section 7;

Director of Public Prosecutions means the Director of Public Prosecutions appointed under the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1991; doctor means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Western Australia) in the medical profession; guidelines means guidelines issued under section 58;

inquest means a formal hearing by the court;

investigation includes an inquest;

pathologist means a doctor with a prescribed qualification in pathology, or a doctor recognized by a prescribed professional body as a pathologist; person held in care means —

- (a) a person under, or escaping from, the control, care or custody of —
 - (i) the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004; or

- (ii) the Chief Executive Officer of the department of the Public Service principally assisting the Minister administering the Prisons Act 1981 in its administration; or
 - (iii) a member of the Police Force;
- or
- (aa) a person for whom the CEO as defined in the Court Security and Custodial Services Act 1999 is responsible under section 10, 13, 15 or 16 of that Act, whether that person is at a custodial place as defined in that Act, is being moved between custodial places or escapes, or becomes absent, from a custodial place or during movement between custodial places; or
 - (b) a person admitted to a centre under the Alcohol and Other Drugs Act 1974; or
 - (ca) a resident as defined in the Declared Places (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 2015 section 3;
 - (c) a person —
 - (i) who is an involuntary patient under the Mental Health Act 2014; or
 - (ii) who is apprehended or detained under that Act; or
 - (iii) who is absent without leave from a hospital or other place under section 97 of that Act;
- or
- (d) a person detained under the Young Offenders Act 1994;

post mortem examination means an examination of the body of a person who has died, for the purpose of investigating the death;

prescribed means prescribed by regulation;

reportable death means a Western Australian death —

- (a) that appears to have been unexpected, unnatural or violent or to have resulted, directly or indirectly, from injury; or
- (b) that occurs during an anaesthetic; or
- (c) that occurs as a result of an anaesthetic and is not due to natural causes; or
- (d) that occurs in prescribed circumstances; or
- (e) of a person who immediately before death was a person held in care; or

s. 3A

- (f) that appears to have been caused or contributed to while the person was held in care; or
- (g) that appears to have been caused or contributed to by any action of a member of the Police Force; or
- (h) of a person whose identity is unknown; or
- (i) that occurs in Western Australia where the cause of death has not been certified under section 44 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1998; or
- (j) that occurred outside Western Australia where the cause of death is not certified to by a person who, under the law in force in that place, is a legally qualified medical practitioner;

senior next of kin has the meaning given under section 37(5);

State Coroner means the person appointed under section 6; tissue includes an organ or part of the human body or a substance extracted from, or from a part of, the human body;

Western Australian death means a death —

- (a) that occurred in Western Australia; or
- (b) where the body is in Western Australia; or
- (c) the cause of which occurred in Western Australia; or
- (d) of a person who was ordinarily residing in Western Australia at the time of death; or
- (e) of a person who, at the time of death, was in an industry to and in relation to which the Industrial Relations Act 1979 applies due to the operation of section 3 of that Act.

[Section 3 amended: No. 40 of 1998 s. 8(2); No. 47 of 1999 s. 9; No. 8 of 2000 s. 3; No. 15 of 2003 s. 4; No. 34 of 2004 Sch. 2 cl. 6; No. 59 of 2004 s. 76; No. 22 of 2008 Sch. 3 cl. 10; No. 35 of 2010 s. 46; No. 25 of 2014 s. 42; No. 3 of 2015 s. 15; No. 4 of 2015 s. 83.]

3A. Death under Voluntary Assisted Dying Act 2019 not reportable death

- (1) Despite the definition of reportable death in section 3, a Western Australian death of a person who has self-administered, or has been administered, a voluntary assisted dying substance in accordance with the Voluntary Assisted Dying Act 2019 is not a reportable death for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a Western Australian death of a person who immediately before death was a person held in care.

[Section 3A inserted: Voluntary Assisted Dying Bill 2019 cl. 166.]

4. Common law rules to cease to have effect

A rule of the common law that, immediately before the commencement of this section, would have operated to confer a power or impose a duty on a coroner or a coroner's court ceases to have effect on and after the commencement of this Act.

Part 2 — Coroners and Coroner's court

Division 1 — Coroner's court

5. Establishment of court

- (1) A court to be known as the Coroner's Court of Western Australia is established.
- (2) The court is to be constituted by a coroner and has exclusive jurisdiction to hold all inquests under this Act.
- (3) The court constituted by a coroner may sit and exercise the jurisdiction of the court at the same time as any other court constituted by a coroner is sitting and exercising the jurisdiction of the court.
- (4) The court is a court of record and is to have an official seal of which judicial notice must be taken.

Division 2 — State Coroner and other coroners

6. State Coroner

- (1) A State Coroner is to be appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Attorney General.
- (2) A person is not eligible for appointment as State Coroner unless that person is eligible to be appointed as a magistrate.
- (3) The State Coroner is entitled to the same salary, allowances and reimbursements, leave of absence and superannuation rights, as the Chief Magistrate of the Magistrates Court is entitled to in relation to that office.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), the State Coroner is entitled to hold office on the same terms as a magistrate.
- (5) If a person was a contributor within the meaning of the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*³ immediately before appointment as State Coroner then that person may continue to be a contributor, or member, under that Act while holding office as State Coroner⁴.
- (6) The State Coroner may not practise as an Australian legal practitioner (within the meaning of that term in the Legal Profession Act 2008 section 3) or be directly or indirectly concerned in such practice.

- (7) In the exercise of that office the State Coroner has the same protection and immunity as a judge has in respect of proceedings in the Supreme Court.
- (8) The State Coroner may at any time, by written notice addressed to the Governor, resign from office.

[Section 6 amended: No. 43 of 2000 s. 36(1); No. 65 of 2003 s. 25; No. 59 of 2004 s. 76; No. 21 of 2008 s. 652(2).]

7. Deputy State Coroner

- (1) The Attorney General, on the recommendation of the State Coroner, is to appoint a coroner to be Deputy State Coroner for such period as is specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1) is to perform such functions of the State Coroner as are assigned by the State Coroner.
- (3) Where the State Coroner is absent from duty or the office of State Coroner is vacant, the Deputy State Coroner may act in the office of State Coroner and when so acting has all the functions of the State Coroner.
- (4) The Deputy State Coroner may not practise as an Australian legal practitioner (within the meaning of that term in the Legal Profession Act 2008 section 3) or be directly or indirectly concerned in such practice.
- (5) In the exercise of that office the Deputy State Coroner has the same protection and immunity as a judge has in respect of proceedings in the Supreme Court.
- (6) The Deputy State Coroner may at any time, by written notice addressed to the Attorney General, resign as Deputy State Coroner.

[Section 7 inserted: No. 8 of 2000 s. 4; amended: No. 65 of 2003 s. 25(2); No. 21 of 2008 s. 652(3).]

7A. Acting Deputy State Coroner

- (1) The Attorney General, on the recommendation of the State Coroner, may appoint a coroner to act in the office of Deputy State Coroner for such period as is specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1) is to act in the office of Deputy State Coroner when the Deputy State Coroner is absent from duty or the office of Deputy State Coroner is vacant and when so acting has all the functions of the Deputy State Coroner.

- (3) The person appointed as acting Deputy State Coroner may at any time, by written notice addressed to the Attorney General, resign from that office.

[Section 7A inserted: No. 8 of 2000 s. 4.]

8. Functions of State Coroner

The functions of the State Coroner are —

- (a) to ensure that a State coronial system is administered and operates efficiently;
- (b) to oversee and coordinate coronial services;
- (c) to ensure that all reportable deaths reported to a coroner are investigated;
- (d) to ensure that an inquest is held whenever there is a duty to do so under this Act or whenever it is desirable that an inquest be held;
- (e) to issue guidelines in accordance with this Act;
- (f) such other functions as are conferred or imposed on the State Coroner under this Act.

9. Oath of office

The State Coroner must, before proceeding to discharge the duties of that office, take before a judge of the Supreme Court, an oath or affirmation of office in accordance with the appropriate prescribed form.

10. Delegation

The State Coroner may, in writing, delegate to a coroner's registrar any power or duty of a coroner other than a prescribed power or duty or this power of delegation.

[Section 10 amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

11. Coroners

- (1) Every magistrate is contemporaneously a coroner.
- (2) The Attorney General, on the recommendation of the State Coroner, may appoint a person to be a coroner for such period and on such terms as is specified in the instrument of appointment.

- (3) A person is not eligible for appointment as a coroner unless that person is eligible to be appointed as a magistrate.
- (4) In the exercise of that office, a coroner has the same protection and immunity as a judge has in respect of proceedings in the Supreme Court.

[Section 11 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 5.]

Division 3 — Coroner's registrars and investigators

[Heading amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

12. Coroner's registrars

- (1) Coroner's registrars are to be appointed under Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994.
- (2) A registrar of the Magistrates Court may act as a coroner's registrar if an investigation is held at a court house where the Magistrates Court sits.

[Section 12 inserted: No. 59 of 2004 s. 75(1).]

13. Functions of coroner's registrars

A coroner's registrar may —

- (a) on behalf of a coroner, receive information about a death which a coroner is investigating otherwise than at an inquest; and
- (b) issue a summons requiring a witness to attend an inquest to give oral evidence or to produce documents; and
- (c) carry out any other function authorised under this Act.

[Section 13 amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

14. Appointment of coroner's investigators

- (1) The Attorney General, on the recommendation of the State Coroner, may appoint by notice published in the Gazette persons to be coroner's investigators.
- (2) Every member of the Police Force of the State is contemporaneously a coroner's investigator.
- (3) A coroner's investigator must —
 - (a) assist a coroner in carrying out his or her duties under this Act;

Coroners Act 1996

Part 2 Coroners and Coroner's court

Division 4 Counselling

s. 15

- (b) carry out all reasonable directions of a coroner.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not require or authorise a member of the Police Force to carry out a direction of a coroner if that direction is inconsistent with a direction of the Commissioner of Police.
- (5) The State Coroner is to cause to be issued to a coroner's investigator, who is not a member of the Police Force of the State, an identity card.
- (6) Where a person in possession of an identity card ceases to be a coroner's investigator, that person is to return the card as soon as is practicable to the State Coroner.

Penalty: $1 000.

[Section 14 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 6.]

15. Affidavits

An affidavit relating to an investigation by a coroner may be sworn before a coroner's registrar or investigator.

[Section 15 amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

Division 4 — Counselling

16. Counselling

- (1) The State Coroner is to ensure that a counselling service is attached to the court.
- (2) Any person coming into contact with the coronial system may seek the assistance of the counselling service of the court and, as far as practicable, that service is to be made available to them.

Part 3 — Reporting of deaths

17. Obligation to report death

- (1) A person must report a death that is or may be a reportable death to a coroner or a member of the Police Force immediately after he or she becomes aware of the death, unless the person has reasonable grounds to believe that the death has already been reported.

Penalty: $1 000.

- (2) A person to whom a death has been reported under subsection (1) must inform the State Coroner of the reported death immediately.
- (3) A doctor who is present at or soon after the death of a person must report the death immediately to a coroner if —
- (a) the death is or may be a reportable death; or
 - (b) the doctor is unable to determine the cause of death; or
 - (c) in the opinion of the doctor, the death has occurred under any suspicious circumstances.

Penalty: $1 000.

- (4) If more than one doctor is present at or soon after a death and one of them reports it to a coroner, the other doctors need not report the death but must give to the coroner investigating the death any information which may help the investigation.
- (5) The death of a person who, immediately before death, was a person held in care must be reported immediately to a coroner by the person under whose care the deceased was held.

Penalty: $1 000.

[Section 17 amended: No. 40 of 1998 s. 8(3).]

18. Information to be given to coroner

- (1) A person who reports a death must give to the coroner investigating the death any information which may help the investigation.

Penalty: $1 000.

- (2) A member of the Police Force who has information relevant to an investigation must report it to the coroner investigating the death.

Penalty: $1 000.

Part 4 — Investigation of deaths

Division 1 — General powers and duties of coroners

19. Jurisdiction of coroner to investigate death

- (1) A coroner has jurisdiction to investigate a death if it appears to the coroner that the death is or may be a reportable death.
- (2) Unless the Attorney General directs otherwise, a coroner need not investigate a death if an investigation is held in another State or Territory.

19A. Certain reportable deaths do not require investigation

- (1) A coroner is not required to investigate, or continue to investigate, a reportable death if the coroner determines that —
 - (a) the death is due to natural causes; and
 - (b) the death is a reportable death solely because it appears to have been unexpected.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a coroner may determine that a death is due to natural causes if a pathologist informs the coroner in writing that, in the pathologist's opinion, the death is due to natural causes or consistent with natural causes.
- (3) However, a determination cannot be made under subsection (1) about a reportable death if —
 - (a) there is a duty to hold an inquest into the death under this Act; or
 - (b) the death occurred during an anaesthetic.
- (4) If a determination is made under subsection (1), the coroner must notify the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages as soon as possible of the particulars (if any) found by the coroner which are needed to register the death.

[Section 19A inserted: No. 23 of 2018 s. 4.]

20. Information to be provided to next of kin

- (1) A coroner who has jurisdiction to investigate a death must, as soon as practicable after assuming that jurisdiction, provide to any of the deceased person's next of kin under section 37(5) the following information —
 - (a) that the body is under the control of the coroner investigating the death; and

- (b) that a post mortem examination is likely to be performed on the body under section 34; and
 - (c) that while the body is under the control of the coroner investigating the death, any of the deceased person's next of kin under section 37(5) may touch the body, unless the coroner determines that it is undesirable or dangerous to do so; and
 - (d) that there is a right under section 35 to request that a doctor chosen by the senior next of kin be present at the post mortem examination; and
 - (e) that if tissue is to be removed from the body under section 34(3)(b), then there is a right to view the written permission of the deceased; and
 - (f) that while the body is under the control of the coroner investigating the death, it may be viewed by any of the deceased person's next of kin under section 37(5); and
 - (g) that there is a right under section 37 to object to the post mortem examination, and a right under section 36 to request that a post mortem examination be performed; and
 - (h) that there is a possibility that tissue may be retained after the completion of the post mortem examination, where it is necessary to do so in order to investigate the death, in accordance with section 34; and
 - (i) a brief summary stating the manner in which objection under section 37 may be made; and
 - (j) that a counselling service is available.
- (2) The information provided under subsection (1) must be in writing, where practicable, and in a language and form likely to be understood by the person to whom it is provided.

21. Directions by State Coroner

- (1) With the prior approval of the Chief Magistrate of the Magistrates Court, the State Coroner may give to a coroner directions about investigations into deaths generally and the manner in which they are to be conducted.
- (2) The State Coroner may give to a coroner directions about an investigation into a particular death, including a direction to cease to investigate that death or a direction to make such findings as are possible under section 25(1) in relation to that death by a day specified in the direction.

[Section 21 amended: No. 8 of 2000 s. 5; No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

22. Jurisdiction of coroner to hold inquest into death

- (1) A coroner who has jurisdiction to investigate a death must hold an inquest if the death appears to be a Western Australian death and —
 - (a) the deceased was immediately before death a person held in care; or
 - (b) it appears that the death was caused, or contributed to, by any action of a member of the Police Force; or
 - (c) it appears that the death was caused, or contributed to, while the deceased was a person held in care; or
 - (d) the Attorney General so directs; or
 - (e) the State Coroner so directs; or
 - (f) the death occurred in prescribed circumstances.
- (2) A coroner who has jurisdiction to investigate a death may hold an inquest if the coroner believes it is desirable.

23. Investigation of suspected deaths

- (1) Where a person is missing and the State Coroner has reasonable cause to suspect that the person has died and that the death was a reportable death, the State Coroner may direct that the suspected death of the person be investigated.
- (2) Where the State Coroner has given such a direction, a coroner must hold an inquest into the circumstances of the suspected death of the person, and if the coroner finds that the death of the person has been established beyond all reasonable doubt, into how the death occurred and the cause of the death.

24. Application for inquest into death

- (1) If a person asks a coroner to hold an inquest into a death which a coroner has jurisdiction to investigate, the coroner may —
 - (a) hold an inquest or ask another coroner to do so; or
 - (b) refuse the request and give reasons in writing for the refusal to the person and to the State Coroner within a reasonable period after receiving the request.
- (1a) A request under subsection (1) is to —
 - (a) be made in writing; and
 - (b) contain reasons for the request.
- (2) Within 7 days after receiving notice of the refusal, or if a reply to a request for an inquest to be held has not been given within 3 months after the request was made, the person may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that an inquest be held.

- (3) The Supreme Court may make an order that an inquest be held if it is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable in the interests of justice.

[Section 24 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 7.]

25. Findings and comments of coroner

- (1) A coroner investigating a death must find if possible —

- (a) the identity of the deceased; and
- (b) how death occurred; and
- (c) the cause of death; and
- (d) the particulars needed to register the death under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1998.

- (1A) However, a coroner is not under a duty to make a finding under subsection (1)(b) as to how death occurred, even if it is possible to do so, if —

- (a) there is no duty to hold an inquest into the death under this Act; and
- (b) the coroner determines that there is no public interest to be served in making a finding as to how the death occurred.

- (2) A coroner may comment on any matter connected with the death including public health or safety or the administration of justice.
- (3) Where the death is of a person held in care, a coroner must comment on the quality of the supervision, treatment and care of the person while in that care.
- (4) Where a post mortem examination is held as part of the investigation of a death and a finding has not been made within 21 days after that post mortem examination, then the coroner must provide written information on that examination to any of the next of kin under section 37(5), unless it is not practicable to do so.
- (5) A coroner must not frame a finding or comment in such a way as to appear to determine any question of civil liability or to suggest that any person is guilty of any offence.

[Section 25 amended: No. 40 of 1998 s. 8(4); No. 23 of 2018 s. 5.]

Coroners Act 1996

Part 4 Investigation of deaths

Division 1 General powers and duties of coroners

s. 26

26. Record of findings and comments

- (1) A coroner or the coroner's registrar must keep a record of each investigation into a death in the prescribed form.
- (2) A record is not evidence in any court of any fact asserted to in it.

[Section 26 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 8; No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

26A. Access to evidence

If the senior next of kin of a deceased person asks a coroner for access to evidence obtained for the purpose of investigating the death, the coroner is to give that person access to that evidence, unless the coroner believes it is not desirable or practicable to do so.

[Section 26A inserted: No. 15 of 2003 s. 9.]

27. Reports

- (1) The State Coroner must report annually to the Attorney General on the deaths which have been investigated in each year, including a specific report on the death of each person held in care.
- (2) The Attorney General is to cause a report submitted under subsection (1) to be laid before each House of Parliament within 12 sitting days of such House after its receipt by him or her.
- (3) The State Coroner may make recommendations to the Attorney General on any matter connected with a death which a coroner investigated, including public health or safety, the death of a person held in care or the administration of justice.
- (4) Where a recommendation made under subsection (3) regarding a death of a person held in care is relevant to the operation of an agency, the State Coroner must inform that agency in writing of the recommendation.
- (5) A coroner may report to —
 - (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions if the coroner believes that an indictable offence has been committed in connection with a death which the coroner investigated; or

- (b) the Commissioner of Police if the coroner believes that a simple offence has been committed in connection with a death which the coroner investigated.

[Section 27 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 10.]

28. Notification of reported deaths to Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages

- (1) A coroner investigating a death must notify the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages as soon as possible of the particulars (if any) found by the coroner which are needed to register the death.
- (2) If a coroner believes —
 - (a) that there will be a delay in concluding an investigation; and
 - (b) that there is sufficient evidence to determine the identity of the deceased and the date, place and cause of death, then the coroner may make that determination for the purpose of enabling registration of the death to be effected or completed, and must notify the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages of the particulars of the determination.

[Section 28 amended: No. 40 of 1998 s. 8(5) and (6); No. 23 of 2018 s. 6.]

29. Certificate of disposal of body

- (1) A coroner investigating a death must issue as soon as reasonably possible a certificate in the prescribed form permitting burial, cremation or other disposal of the body or any parts of the body.
- (2) A certificate under subsection (1) must not be issued until —
 - (a) an application made under section 36(3) is disposed of; or
 - (b) the time specified in section 36(3) for making an application has expired; or
 - (c) if the coroner investigating the death has notice that an application has been made under section 36(3a) for an extension of time, the application is disposed of or any extension of time granted under section 36(3a) has expired.

Coroners Act 1996

Part 4 Investigation of deaths

Division 2 Powers of investigation

s. 30

- (3) If the Supreme Court makes an order under section 36(4) a coroner, other than the State Coroner, must not issue a certificate under subsection (1).

[Section 29 amended: No. 8 of 2000 s. 6.]

30. Control of body

- (1) If a reportable death occurs and the body is in Western Australia, the body is under the control of the coroner investigating the death, subject to any directions the State Coroner may give, until the coroner has issued a certificate under section 29(1).
- (2) While a body is under the control of the coroner investigating the death, the coroner is to ensure that any of the deceased person's next of kin under section 37(5) who wish to view the body are permitted to do so and any of those persons who wish to touch the body are permitted to do so, unless the coroner determines that it is undesirable or dangerous to do so.

31. Aid to coroners in other places

- (1) The State Coroner may use any of the powers of a coroner under this Act to help a coroner of another State or a Territory to investigate a death.
- (2) If the Attorney General so directs, the State Coroner must use any of the powers of a coroner under this Act to help a coroner of another State or a Territory to investigate a death.

Division 2 — Powers of investigation

32. Restriction of access to area

- (1) A coroner, or coroner's investigator, investigating a death may take reasonable steps to restrict access to the place where the death occurred, or the place where the event which caused or contributed to the death occurred.
- (2) A coroner must, in writing, agree with any restriction imposed by a coroner's investigator under subsection (1) as soon as is practicable after the restriction is imposed.
- (3) A restriction imposed by a coroner's investigator ceases to have effect 6 hours after it is imposed unless subsection (2) has been complied with by that time.
- (4) A prescribed notice may be put up at the place to which access is to be restricted.

- (5) A person must not without good cause enter or interfere with an area to which access is restricted under this section.
Penalty: $2 000.
- (6) A coroner is to ensure that access to an area is not restricted for any longer than necessary.
- (7) Any person aggrieved by the operation of this section may apply to the State Coroner and the State Coroner may order the variation or removal of the restriction.

33. Powers of entry, inspection and possession

- (1) A coroner who has jurisdiction to investigate a death may, with any help thought fit —
 - (a) enter and inspect any place and anything in it; and
 - (b) take a copy of any document relevant to the investigation; and
 - (c) take possession of anything which the coroner reasonably believes is relevant to the investigation and keep it until the investigation is finished.
- (2) A coroner may only exercise those powers if the coroner reasonably believes it is necessary for the investigation.
- (2a) If a death has occurred that, in the opinion of a coroner's investigator, is or may be a reportable death, the coroner's investigator may, with any help thought fit and without the consent of any occupier of a place, or any authority other than this subsection —
 - (a) enter the place where the body is or where, in the opinion of the coroner's investigator, the death, or the event which caused or contributed to the death, occurred; and
 - (b) inspect the place where the body is or where, in the opinion of the coroner's investigator, the death, or the event which caused or contributed to the death, occurred; and
 - (c) take possession of anything which the coroner's investigator reasonably believes is directly relevant to an investigation of the death.
- (2b) Anything taken by a coroner's investigator under subsection (2a) is to be kept and dealt with in accordance with the regulations, until the investigation of the death is finished, or

Coroners Act 1996

Part 4 Investigation of deaths

Division 2 Powers of investigation

s. 33

it is decided that there is no jurisdiction under this Act to investigate the death.

- (2c) A coroner's investigator (other than a member of the Police Force of the State who is in uniform) exercising, or about to exercise, a power under subsection (2a) must, at the reasonable request of a person apparently in charge of the place or any other person at the place, produce for inspection by that person —
- (a) in the case of a member of the Police Force, written evidence of the fact that he or she is a member of the Police Force; or
 - (b) in any other case, his or her identity card.
- (3) A coroner may, if the coroner reasonably believes it is necessary for the investigation, in writing authorise a coroner's investigator at or between specified times during a specified period (not exceeding one month after the authority is given) —
- (a) to enter a specified place; and
 - (b) to inspect a specified place and anything in it; and
 - (c) to take a copy of specified documents or classes of documents; and
 - (d) to take possession of specified things or classes of things.
- (4) A coroner's investigator must not exercise a power under an authority unless the investigator has given a copy of the authority to the owner or occupier of the place or the person in possession of the document or thing inspected, copied or taken.
- (5) A coroner may release anything kept under subsection (1)(c) or (3)(d) and may require a person to whom the thing is released to give an undertaking to comply with any reasonable conditions of release.
- (6) A person must comply with an undertaking concerning release.
Penalty for an offence against this subsection: $2 000.
- (7) A person must not delay, obstruct or otherwise hinder a coroner or a coroner's investigator exercising a power under this section.
Penalty: $2 000.
- (8) A coroner or a coroner's investigator exercising a power under this section is to conform as far as is practicable to such reasonable requirements of the owner or occupier of the place where the power is being exercised as are necessary to prevent the lawful use of the place being obstructed.

[Section 33 amended: No. 15 of 2003 s. 11.]

34. Post mortem examinations

- (1) If a coroner reasonably believes that it is necessary for an investigation of a death, the coroner may direct a pathologist or a doctor to perform a post mortem examination on the body.
- (2) The coroner may direct the pathologist or doctor performing the post mortem examination to cause to be removed from the body, for such period as the coroner directs, any tissue which it appears necessary to remove in order to investigate the death.
- (3) The pathologist or doctor performing the post mortem examination may cause tissue to be removed from the body —
 - (a) in accordance with a direction under subsection (2); or
 - (b) in accordance with the written permission of the deceased; or
 - (c) subject to subsection (5)(b), in accordance with the written informed consent, in the prescribed form, of the senior next of kin of the deceased specifying the tissue which may be removed and the purpose (therapeutic, medical, teaching or scientific) for which the tissue may be removed.
- (4) The coroner may direct the pathologist or doctor performing the post mortem examination not to cause tissue to be removed as authorised under subsection (3)(c) if the coroner is satisfied that the removal would be contrary to or inconsistent with wishes expressed in writing by the deceased.
- (5) Where a post mortem examination is performed under this Act a person who causes tissue to be removed from the body —
 - (a) otherwise than as authorised under subsection (3); or
 - (b) contrary to a direction of a coroner under subsection (4),commits an offence.
Penalty: $10 000.
- (6) Tissue removed under subsection (2) is to be dealt with in accordance with the coroner's directions and any relevant guidelines.
- (7) Where tissue is to be removed as authorised under subsection (3)(b), the coroner is to ensure that before the tissue

Coroners Act 1996

Part 4 Investigation of deaths

Division 2 Powers of investigation

s. 35

is removed, the senior next of kin of the deceased is informed in writing what tissue is to be removed and the purpose for which it is to be removed and is given a chance to view the written permission of the deceased.

35. Independent doctor at post mortem examination

If the senior next of kin of the deceased asks a coroner to allow a doctor chosen by the senior next of kin to be present at a post mortem examination, the coroner is to allow that doctor to be present and is to ensure that the doctor is informed as to the time and place that the examination is to take place.

36. Application for post mortem examination

- (1) If a coroner has jurisdiction to investigate a death, any person may ask the coroner to direct that a post mortem examination be performed on the body.
- (2) If the coroner refuses the person's request, the coroner must immediately give to the person and to the State Coroner, reasons for the refusal.
- (3) Within 2 clear working days after receiving notice of a refusal, or before the end of any extension of time granted by the Supreme Court, the person may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that a post mortem examination be performed.
- (3a) The Supreme Court may grant an extension of time within which a person may apply to the Court for an order that a post mortem examination be performed if it is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist so that it is necessary or desirable in the interests of justice to grant the extension.
- (4) If the Supreme Court is satisfied that it is desirable in all the circumstances, it may make an order —
 - (a) directing the State Coroner to require a pathologist or a doctor to perform a post mortem examination; and
 - (b) prohibiting burial, cremation or other disposal of the body until the post mortem examination has been conducted, or, if the body has been buried, directing that the body be exhumed.

[Section 36 amended: No. 8 of 2000 s. 7.]

37. Objections to post mortem examinations

- (1) If the senior next of kin of the deceased asks a coroner not to direct a post mortem examination but the coroner decides that a post mortem examination is necessary, the coroner must immediately give notice in writing to the senior next of kin and to the State Coroner.

- (2) Unless the coroner believes that a post mortem examination needs to be performed immediately it must not be performed if a request has been made under subsection (1) until 2 clear working days after the senior next of kin has been given notice of the decision or until after the end of any extension of time granted by the Supreme Court under subsection (3a).
- (2a) The coroner may direct that a post mortem examination be performed if a senior next of kin who has asked the coroner not to direct a post mortem examination withdraws the request.
- (3) Within 2 clear working days after receiving notice of the decision, or before the end of any extension of time granted by the Supreme Court, the senior next of kin may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that no post mortem examination be performed.
- (3a) On the application of the senior next of kin, the Supreme Court may grant an extension of time within which the senior next of kin may apply to the Court for an order that no post mortem be performed if the post mortem examination has not been performed and it is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist so that it is necessary or desirable in the interests of justice to grant the extension.
- (4) The Supreme Court may make an order that no post mortem examination be performed if it is satisfied that it is desirable in the circumstances.
- (5) In this section, unless otherwise prescribed, senior next of kin in relation to the deceased person means the first person who is available from the following persons in the order of priority listed —
 - (a) a person who, immediately before death, was living with the person and was either —
 - (i) legally married to the person; or
 - (ii) of or over the age of 18 years and in a marriage-like relationship (whether the persons are different sexes or the same sex) with the person;

or

Coroners Act 1996

Part 4 Investigation of deaths

Division 2 Powers of investigation

s. 38

- (b) a person who, immediately before death, was legally married to the person; or
- (c) a son or daughter, who is of or over the age of 18 years, of the person; or
- (d) a parent of the person; or
- (e) a brother or sister, who is of or over the age of 18 years, of the person; or
- (f) an executor named in the will of the person or a person who, immediately before the death, was a personal representative of the person; or
- (g) any person nominated by the person to be contacted in an emergency.

[Section 37 amended: No. 8 of 2000 s. 8; No. 15 of 2003 s. 12; No. 28 of 2003 s. 27.]

38. Exhumation

- (1) The State Coroner may order that a body be exhumed if the State Coroner reasonably believes that it is necessary for an investigation of a death.
- (2) The State Coroner must ensure that at least 2 clear working days notice is given to the senior next of kin of the deceased person and to the Board, local government or owner of the cemetery, burial ground or place of burial where the body is buried before the body is exhumed unless the State Coroner is satisfied that it is not possible to do so, or if the State Coroner considers it is not appropriate to do so.
- (3) If the senior next of kin asks the State Coroner not to exhume the body, the body must not be exhumed until 2 clear working days after the request has been made.
- (4) A request referred to in subsection (3) must be made within 2 clear working days after the senior next of kin receives notice that the State Coroner has made an order that the body be exhumed.
- (5) Where the State Coroner rejects a request by the senior next of kin that the body not be exhumed, he or she must ensure that written notice of that decision is given to the senior next of kin immediately.

- (6) Where notice is given under subsection (5), the exhumation of the body must not take place —
- (a) until 2 clear working days after that notice is received by the senior next of kin; or
 - (b) if an application for an extension of time has been made, until the application is refused or the application for an order that the body not be exhumed is dealt with.
- (7) Within 2 clear working days after receiving notice of the decision to reject a request that the body not be exhumed under subsection (5), or before the end of any extension of time granted by the Supreme Court, the senior next of kin may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that the body not be exhumed.
- (7a) The Supreme Court may grant an extension of time within which a person may apply to the Court for an order that the body not be exhumed if the exhumation has not taken place and it is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist so that it is necessary or desirable in the interests of justice to grant the extension.
- (8) The Supreme Court may make an order that a body not be exhumed if it is satisfied that it is desirable in the circumstances.
- (9) This section does not apply if the Supreme Court by order under section 36(4)(b) directs that a body be exhumed.

[Section 38 amended: No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 8 of 2000 s. 9; No. 15 of 2003 s. 13.]

Part 5 — Inquests into deaths

39. Advertisement of inquest

Unless the State Coroner otherwise directs, a coroner must, at least 14 days before an inquest, publish in a daily newspaper circulating generally in the State, the date, time, place and subject of the inquest.

40. Two or more deaths

The State Coroner may direct that more than one death be investigated at one inquest.

41. Rules of evidence not to apply

A coroner holding an inquest is not bound by the rules of evidence and may be informed and conduct an inquest in any manner the coroner reasonably thinks fit.

42. Rights of interested persons

A coroner may make available any statements that the coroner intends to consider to any person with a sufficient interest.

43. Attorney General may appear at inquest

The Attorney General may appear or be represented at an inquest, examine or cross-examine witnesses and make submissions.

44. Other persons may appear at inquest

- (1) An interested person may appear, or be represented by an Australian legal practitioner (within the meaning of that term in the Legal Profession Act 2008 section 3), at an inquest and examine or cross-examine witnesses.
- (2) Before a coroner makes any finding adverse to the interests of an interested person, that person must be given the opportunity to present submissions against the making of such a finding.
- (3) There may be prescribed a list of persons who are interested persons for the purpose of this section, but such a list is not a conclusive list of interested persons.
- (4) A coroner may disallow any question which in the coroner's opinion is not relevant or otherwise not a proper question.

[Section 44 amended: No. 21 of 2008 s. 652(4).]

45. Exclusion from inquest

- (1) A coroner may order the exclusion from an inquest of all or any persons if the coroner reasonably believes it is in the interests of any person, of the public or of justice.
- (2) The coroner's registrar must put a copy of any order under this section in a conspicuous place on or in the building where the inquest is held.
- (3) A coroner may order —
 - (a) the removal from an inquest of a person who disobeys an exclusion order; and
 - (b) the imprisonment of the person for not more than 24 hours if the coroner reasonably believes that the person will continue to disobey the order.

[Section 45 amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

46. Powers of coroners at inquests

- (1) If a coroner reasonably believes it is necessary for the purpose of an inquest, the coroner may —
 - (a) summon a person to attend as a witness or to produce any document or other materials; and
 - (b) inspect, copy and keep for a reasonable period any thing produced at the inquest; and
 - (c) order a witness to answer questions; and
 - (d) order a witness to take an oath or affirmation to answer questions; and
 - (e) give any other directions and do anything else the coroner believes necessary.
- (2) A coroner may be assisted by counsel, or by any other person that the coroner believes will be of assistance.
- [(3) deleted]*
- (4) If a person to whom a summons is issued does not appear, the coroner may issue a warrant to apprehend the person and bring him or her before a coroner.
- (5) If under a warrant issued under subsection (4) a person is brought before a coroner, the coroner may order that the person be kept in custody until it is practicable to take or receive evidence from the person, but in any event for not longer than 7 days.

s. 46A

[Section 46 amended: No. 35 of 2001 s. 3(1); No. 59 of 2004 s. 76.]

46A. Disobeying coroner

A person who does not obey a summons, order, or direction of a coroner issued or given under section 46(1) is guilty of a crime and is liable to imprisonment for 5 years and to a fine of $100 000.

Summary conviction penalty: imprisonment for 2 years and a fine of $40 000.

[Section 46A inserted: No. 4 of 2004 s. 58.]

47. Statements made by witness

- (1) If a person called as a witness at an inquest declines to answer any question on the ground that his or her answer will criminate or tend to criminate him or her, the coroner may, if it appears to the coroner expedient for the ends of justice that the person be compelled to answer the question, tell the person that if the person answers the question and other questions that may be put to him or her, the coroner will grant the person a certificate under this section.
- (2) After a person has been offered a certificate, the person is no longer entitled to refuse to answer questions on the ground that his or her answers will criminate or tend to criminate him or her, and if the person gives evidence to the satisfaction of the coroner, the coroner must give the person a certificate to the effect that the person was called as a witness in the inquest and that the person's evidence was required for the ends of justice and was given to the coroner's satisfaction.
- (3) Where a person is given a certificate under this section in respect of any evidence given at an inquest, a statement by the person as part of that evidence in answer to a question is not admissible in evidence in criminal proceedings against the person other than on a prosecution for perjury committed in the proceedings.

48. Record of evidence

- (1) The coroner must ensure that evidence given at an inquest is —
 - (a) recorded in writing; or
 - (b) recorded by sound recording apparatus.
- (2) If the evidence is recorded in writing, the record must be read and signed by the witness and the coroner.

- (3) If the evidence is recorded by sound recording apparatus and is transcribed, it must be certified as a correct transcript of that recording by —
- (a) the person who prepared the transcript; or
 - (b) the person who checked the transcript, if the transcript has been checked by a person other than the person who transcribed it.
- (4) A person must not —
- (a) certify that a transcript is a correct transcript unless authorised to do so under subsection (3); or
 - (b) provide a certificate in respect of any transcript which that person knows to be false in any material particular.
- Penalty: $2 000.
- (5) A record is not evidence in any court of any fact asserted to in it.

49. Restriction on publication of reports

- (1) A coroner must order that no report of an inquest or of any part of the proceedings or of any evidence given at an inquest be published if the coroner reasonably believes that it would —
- (a) be likely to prejudice the fair trial of a person; or
 - (b) be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) A person must not contravene an order made under subsection (1).
- Penalty: $5 000.

50. Reference to disciplinary body

- (1) A coroner may refer any evidence, information or matter which comes to the coroner's notice in carrying out the coroner's duties to a body having jurisdiction over a person carrying on a trade or profession if the evidence, information or matter —
- (a) touches on the conduct of that person in relation to that trade or profession; and
 - (b) is, in the opinion of the coroner, of such a nature as might lead the body to inquire into or take any other step in respect of the conduct apparently disclosed by the evidence, information or matter so referred.

s. 51

- (2) In subsection (1) a body having jurisdiction over a person carrying on a trade or profession means a body empowered under a written law to —
- (a) register, license or otherwise approve a person as a prerequisite to the person lawfully carrying on that trade or profession; and
 - (b) impose or recommend any punishment or liability in respect of wrongful, incompetent or otherwise unsatisfactory conduct of that person in relation to that trade or profession.

51. Interruption of inquest

A person must not interrupt an inquest.

Penalty: $5 000.

52. New inquests and re-opening of inquests

- (1) Any person may apply to the Supreme Court for an order that some or all of the findings of an inquest are void.
- (2) The Supreme Court may declare that some or all of the findings of the inquest are void and may order the State Coroner —
 - (a) to hold a new inquest, or direct any coroner, other than the coroner who held the first inquest, to hold a new inquest; or
 - (b) to re-open (or direct another coroner to re-open) the inquest and re-examine any finding.
- (3) The Supreme Court may only make an order if it is satisfied that —
 - (a) it is necessary or desirable because of fraud, consideration of evidence, failure to consider evidence, irregularity of proceedings or insufficiency of inquiry; or
 - (b) there is a mistake in the record of the findings; or
 - (c) it is desirable because of new facts or evidence; or
 - (d) the findings are against the evidence or the weight of the evidence.

53. Inquest not to proceed where criminal proceedings instituted

- (1) Where a coroner is informed that some person has been charged with an offence in which the question whether the accused person caused a death is in issue —
 - (a) the coroner must not commence to hold an inquest into the death until the proceedings in respect of the offence have been concluded; or
 - (b) if the coroner has already commenced an inquest into the death, the coroner must adjourn the inquest until the proceedings in respect of the offence have been concluded.
- (2) The finding of the coroner on an inquest into a death must not be inconsistent with the result of any earlier proceedings where a person has been charged on indictment or dealt with summarily for an indictable offence in which the question whether the accused person caused the death is in issue.
- (3) In this section, proceedings are to be taken to have been concluded when no appeal, or no further appeal, can be made, without an extension of time being granted.

Part 6 — Miscellaneous

53A. State Coroner may provide information about deaths to human tissue donation agencies

- (1) At the request of a human tissue donation agency, the State Coroner may provide to that agency the following information in respect of any deceased person whose death there is jurisdiction to investigate under this Act —
 - (a) the deceased person's name; and
 - (b) the deceased person's age; and
 - (c) a brief description of the circumstances of death; and
 - (d) the name of the deceased person's senior next of kin, or if that is not known, the name of any of the person's next of kin under section 37(5); and
 - (e) an address, telephone number or other contact details for the person whose name is provided under paragraph (d).
- (2) If information is provided under subsection (1) in a document, then the human tissue donation agency to which it was provided is to ensure that the document is destroyed within 2 days of it being so provided.
- (3) In this section — human tissue donation agency means an office or organisational unit which —

 - (a) coordinates or encourages the donation of human tissue for transplantation in accordance with the Human Tissue and Transplant Act 1982; and
 - (b) is within the department of the Public Service principally assisting the Minister administering that Act.

[Section 53A inserted: No. 22 of 2004 s. 3.]

54. Obstruction

A person must not hinder or obstruct a coroner or a person acting under a coroner's authority in exercising powers under this Act.

Penalty: $5 000.

55. Protection from legal proceedings

- (1) Neither the coroner nor a person acting under an authority given under this Act is liable to any legal proceedings in relation to anything done under this Act, unless it was done in bad faith.

- (2) Proceedings must not be brought against a coroner or a person acting under an authority given under this Act without the permission of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (3) The Director of Public Prosecutions must not give permission unless there is substantial evidence that the coroner or person acting under an authority given under this Act has acted in bad faith.

56. Coroner not to be called as witness

- (1) A coroner must not be called to give evidence in any court or legal proceedings about anything coming to the coroner's knowledge in carrying out the coroner's powers, duties or functions under this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to proceedings against a coroner for anything done in bad faith.

57. Review of Act

- (1) The Attorney General is to carry out a review of the operations of this Act as soon as practicable after every fifth anniversary of the commencement of this Act and in the course of such review the Attorney General is to consider and have regard to —
 - (a) the attainment of the objects of this Act; and
 - (b) the administration of this Act; and
 - (c) the effectiveness of the operation of the court; and
 - (d) such other matters as appear to be relevant to the operation and effectiveness of this Act.
- (2) The Attorney General is to prepare a report based on the review and, as soon as practicable after the report is prepared, must cause it to be laid before each House of Parliament.

58. Guidelines

- (1) The State Coroner must issue guidelines with respect to the principles, practices and procedures of the State coronial system, but those guidelines must not be inconsistent with this Act or any other written law.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the State Coroner may issue guidelines relating to —
 - (a) the administration of the State coronial system;
 - (b) forms that are to be used and the circumstances when a particular form is appropriate;

s. 59

- (c) the general desirability of enabling any next of kin of the deceased under section 37(5) to view and to maintain as much contact with, and control over, the body as is practicable;
- (d) the establishment and functions of an advisory ethics committee;
- (e) the functions of coroners, coroner's clerks and coroner's investigators and the manner in which those functions are to be carried out;
- (f) tissue removed under section 34(2).

59. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations may —
 - (a) specify the matters to be taken into account when considering whether or not a post mortem examination should be performed;
 - (b) prescribe fees and forms for the purposes of this Act, other than fees and forms with respect to any application to the Supreme Court;
 - (c) prescribe who is to be the senior next of kin in prescribed circumstances or in relation to a prescribed group or class of persons;
 - (d) give effect to any recommendation contained in the National Report of the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody which relates to the investigation of the death of a person held in care.

^{1a} On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, provisions referred to in the following table had not come into operation and were therefore not included in this compilation. For the text of the provisions see the endnotes referred to in the table.

Provisions that have not come into operation

Short title	Number and year	Assent	Commencement
State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 s. 36(2) ⁴	43 of 2000	2 Nov 2000	To be proclaimed (see s. 2(2))

² The provision in this Act repealing that Act has been omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4)(f).

³ The Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 was repealed by the State Superannuation Act 2000 s. 39, but its provisions continue to apply to and in relation to certain schemes because of the State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 s. 26.

⁴ On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 s. 36(2) had not come into operation. It reads as follows:

(2) Section 6(5) of the Coroners Act 1996 is repealed.

⁵ The Coroners Amendment Act 2003 s. 14(2) and (3) read as follows:

(2) Despite the amendment effected by subsection (1), the Coroners Act 1920 continues to apply to any inquest part heard under that Act immediately before the commencement of this provision.

(3) In subsection (2) —

inquest part heard under that Act means an inquest which, immediately before the commencement of this provision —

(a) had commenced but had not concluded; and

(b) was in respect of a death to which the Coroners Act 1920, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Coroners Act 1996, applied.

⁶ The Courts Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 s. 75(2) reads as follows:

(2) If immediately before the commencement of this section a person holds office as a Coroner's clerk, then on the commencement the person is to be taken to have been appointed as a Coroner's registrar.
