Preamble

Whereas:

- A. The WA Inc Royal Commission Final Report contained detailed proposals concerning the establishment of the Office of the Commissioner for the Investigation of Corruption and Improper Conduct so that the appointment process would not create a political appointment.
- B. In enacting the Anti-Corruption Commission Act 1988, Parliament established a process that would not create a political appointment.
- C. In enacting the Corruption and Crime Commission Act 2003, Parliament rejected an appointment process proposed by the Government that created a political appointment and established a process that would create an apolitical appointment with bipartisan support.
- D. John Roderick McKechnie was appointed Commissioner on 28 April 2015 for a five year term that ended on 27 April 2020.
- E. Premier Mark McGowan recommended the reappointment of John Roderick McKechnie in March 2020.
- F. The reappointment did not have the support of the majority of the Standing Committee and bipartisan support.
- G. Premier Mark McGowan resubmitted the reappointment recommendation in April 2020.
- H. The resubmitted reappointment did not have the support of the majority of the Standing Committee and bipartisan support.
- I. A new Standing Committee was established in May 2021.
- J. Premier Mark McGowan recommended the reappointment of John Roderick McKechnie in May 2021.

- K. The reappointment did not have the support of the majority of the new Standing Committee and bipartisan support.
- L. In enacting this legislation, Parliament recognises that it is making a political appointment.
