LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Bail Amendment Bill 2022

A Bill for

An Act to amend the Bail Act 1982.

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

s. 1

---

1   1.     Short title

2           This is the Bail Amendment Act 2022.

3   2.     Commencement

4           This Act comes into operation as follows —

- 5           (a) sections 1 and 2 — on the day on which this Act
6               receives the Royal Assent (assent day);
7           (b) sections 9 and 10 — on the day after assent day;
8           (c) the rest of the Act — on the 28th day after assent day.

9   3.     Act amended

10          This Act amends the Bail Act 1982.

11   4.     Section 3 amended

12          In section 3(1) insert in alphabetical order:

13

14               sexual offence means —

- 15           (a) an offence described in Schedule 2 that is of a 16               sexual nature; or 17           (b) an offence under a written law that has been 18               repealed, if the acts or omissions alleged 19               against the accused that constitute the offence
20               under the repealed written law would constitute 21               an offence referred to in paragraph (a); or 22           (c) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or 23               incitement, to commit an offence referred to in 24               paragraph (a) or (b); or 25           (d) an offence of becoming an accessory after the 26               fact (as defined in The Criminal Code 27               section 10) to an offence referred to in 28               paragraph (a) or (b);
29

1 5. Section 6A amended

2 In section 6A(1) delete the definition of serious offence.

3 6. Section 9 amended

4 (1) In section 9(1):

5 (a) delete “he” and insert:

7 the officer

8

9 (b) delete paragraph (c) and insert:

10

11 (c) without limiting paragraph (a) or (b) — to 12 consider what, if any, conditions should be 13 imposed to enhance the protection of an alleged 14 victim of an offence with which the accused is 15 charged, if —

16 (i) the accused and the alleged victim are,
17 or are reasonably believed by the officer
18 to be, in a family relationship; or

19 (ii) the offence charged is a sexual offence
20 and the alleged victim is a person who is 21 under 18 years of age when the case for 22 bail is to be considered.
23

24 (2) In section 9(2) delete “he is”.

1    7.       Schedule 1 Part C clause 1A inserted

2            At the beginning of Schedule 1 Part C insert:

4            1A.       Terms used

5            In this Part —

6            child victim, in relation to a discretion to grant bail, means a
7            person —

8            (a)    against whom a relevant offence is alleged to have 9            been committed; and

10           (b)   who is under 18 years of age when the discretion is 11           to be exercised;

12           family member has the meaning given in the Restraining
13           Orders Act 1997 section 4(3);

14           pending offence, in relation to a discretion to grant bail, 15           means an offence for which the accused is awaiting trial at 16           the time the discretion is to be exercised, whether or not the 17           discretion arises in the course of proceedings relating to that 18           offence;

19           relevant offence, in relation to a discretion to grant bail,
20           means an offence —

21           (a)    in connection with which the accused is, at the time 22           the discretion is to be exercised, in custody awaiting 23           an appearance in court before conviction; and

24           (b)    in the course of proceedings relating to which the 25           discretion to grant bail arises.
26

1 8. Schedule 1 Part C clause 3 replaced

2 Delete Schedule 1 Part C clause 3 and insert:

4 3. Matters relevant to cl. 1(a)

5 In considering whether an accused may do any of the things
6 mentioned in clause 1(a), the judicial officer or authorised
7 officer must have regard to the following matters —

- 8 (a) in relation to each relevant offence — the strength 9 of the evidence against the accused;
- 10 (b) in relation to each pending offence —
- 11 (i) the nature and seriousness of the offence;
12 and
- 13 (ii) the probable method of dealing with the 14 accused for the offence, if convicted;
- 15 (c) in relation to each pending offence and each offence
16 of which the accused has previously been 17 convicted — the conduct of the accused, after the 18 time or alleged time of the offence, towards —
- 19 (i) any person against whom it was, or was 20 alleged to have been, committed; and
- 21 (ii) any family member of such a person;
- 22 (d) the character, previous convictions, antecedents,
23 associations, home environment, background, place
24 of residence, and financial position of the accused;
- 25 (e) the history of any previous grants of bail to the 26 accused;
- 27 (f) any other matter which the officer considers 28 relevant.

29 3AA. Additional relevant matters in cases of sexual offences
30 against child victims

31 (1) This clause applies if —

- 32 (a) a relevant offence is a sexual offence against a child
33 victim; and

- 1                   (b) the accused is not a child.
- 2           (2) In considering under clause 1(a)(iii) whether the accused, if
3 not kept in custody, may endanger the safety or welfare of
4 the child victim, the judicial officer or authorised officer
5 must have regard to the matters mentioned in subclause (3).
- 6           (3) The matters are the following —
- 7                   (a) the age of the child victim;
- 8                   (b) the age of the accused;
- 9                   (c) whether the child victim is in a family relationship 10 with the accused;
- 11                  (d) the living arrangements of the child victim and of 12 the accused;
- 13                  (e) the importance of safety, continuity, security and 14 stability in the child victim's —
- 15                      (i) living arrangements; and
- 16                      (ii) family and community relationships;
- 17                  (f) the physical and emotional wellbeing of the child 18 victim.

19 Note for this clause:

20                   The Crimes Act 1914 (Commonwealth) section 15AAA
21 provides that a bail authority must not grant bail to a person
22 charged with, or convicted of, certain Commonwealth child
23 sex offences unless the bail authority is satisfied that 24 circumstances exist to justify bail.

25           3AB. Concerns of child victims

- 26           (1) This clause applies if —
- 27                   (a) a relevant offence is a sexual offence against a child
28 victim; and
- 29                   (b) either —
- 30                      (i) the child victim expresses concern to the 31 prosecutor that the accused, if not kept in 32 custody, may endanger the safety or welfare
33 of the child victim; or

- 1 (ii) a family member of the child victim or a
2 police officer investigating the relevant
3 offence informs the prosecutor that the child
4 victim has expressed that concern;
5 and
6 (c) the accused is not a child.
- 7 (2) The prosecutor must inform the judicial officer or authorised
8 officer about —
9 (a) the child victim’s expression of concern; and 10 (b) so far as practicable, the reasons for that concern.
- 11 (3) In considering under clause 1(a)(iii) whether the accused, if 12 not kept in custody, may endanger the safety or welfare of
13 the child victim, the judicial officer or authorised officer
14 must have regard to that information.
15

16 9. Schedule 1 Part C clause 4 amended

17 In Schedule 1 Part C clause 4(1) delete “shall be exercised having 18 regard to the questions set out in clause 1 as well as to any others
19 which the judicial officer considers relevant.” and insert:
20

- 21 must be exercised having regard to all of the following —
22 (a) the fact that the accused has been convicted of the 23 offence;
24 (b) the probable method of dealing with the accused for 25 that offence and for any pending offence;
26 (c) the questions set out in clause 1;
27 (d) any other considerations that the judicial officer
28 considers relevant.
