To property rights committee

A further point I raise to the discredit the process and current policy is credit of public record which discredit the individual as examples attached

Kind regards Peter Swift

I don't know what reassurance you mean Peter. As part of the settlement there will be a withdrawing of the Supreme Court proceedings which is a matter of public record so any credit check will show that P&N issued and Writ and then withdrew; the record is not able to be expunged like a criminal record - civil proceedings remain a matter of public record

Hi Karen

I would like reassurance with regard to my personal credentials from the bank and any government department that I don't have a mark against my name as the situation was not created by my self but government

I don't want cross against my name that will effect my future credibility
The parliament inquiry received approximately 89 quality submissions once transcripts are made public will forward through to you
Trust that you are healing well and speak again
Sincere regards Peter

Hi Peter

I received a call this afternoon from the State Solicitor who informs me that the SAT proceedings were settled by a Minute of Consent Orders on Friday and therefore, as far as SAT and SSO are concerned the matter is concluded. I expect I will receive either a call or email from Dave Guille over the next few days to sort out a new date for settlement of the sale. Will let you know.

Regards
