* emergency procedures are shared by the bus company to schools and parents (bush fires, road closures due to storm damage)
* who has duty of care in certain situations (bus cancellation, parent not being at bus stop)
* improved methods of communication between parents, school, bus company