 Use and regulations of Caravan Parks Permanent (long stay) park residents in U.K.

Bill Hansby "Liaison delegate" for Serpentine Park Home Village

These regulations are totally one sided in favour of the land owner. Tenants have no rights at all, though they invest heavily, in this venture, buying a home etc. There is no security, as by many people who have been evicted of many sites in U.K. Other villages run by big organisations, don't have this problem. Make a fair law to suit everyone. I fully endorse "Park Home Owners Association" in their endeavour for justice

Yours faithfully
 W F Hansby
