

Confession is a sacred sacrament that I firmly believe must be respected by the government.