

I believe that regional services have failed to provide a reasonable response as the ambulance service relies upon their volunteers at at present they are treating them like they are paid staff expecting them to be available at all times and this is causing a number of them to resign and forced to resign there is also a lack of consistency within the service