

As a new Mum I am extremely concerned that my child won't get a place on the school bus come primary school age and then also come high school age and will be forced to attend the sub-par district high school rather than the main regional high school due to lack of school bus places and outdated routes.