

Legislation Committee

---

From: Emily McKenna [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, 15 April 2019 2:29 PM
To: Legislation Committee
Subject: Human Reproductive Technology and Surrogacy Legislation Amendment Bill 2018

Dear Parliamentary Committee,

I seek to bring you back to the very sad case a few years back: Shameful: "The Australian parents reportedly decided to take only the healthy girl, leaving the ill baby boy, Gammy, with his surrogate mother." Not satisfied with your purchase? No problems. Only buy what you like. Sounds like this is straight out of a used car lot or some other crass commercial setting."

Babies are not a commodity to be purchased on the whim of an adult's needs or wants. A baby is a human born with unalienable rights. Money should never buy life. It is completely immoral. Our State will find itself in a great mess if we allow ourselves to act this way.

Sincerely,

Mrs Emily McKenna

Sent from my iPhone