The Chair

Dear Chairperson,
I object to the unreasonable increase in Firearm License fees currently being introduced by the WA Police and would like this decision reversed as a priority.

The increases do nothing to improve public safety, rather it is another impost on the law abiding firearm owners who do the right thing, every time, who enjoy a safe activity that assists our agriculture sector and provides a social outlet for many in our society.

Such an increase especially affects pensioners who can ill afford such an extra burden on a hobby that keeps many active in our society.

Yours/truly,

George Hamill.
Vietnam Veteran.
