

Pohe, Pamela

---

From: simon W
Sent: Tuesday, 9 October 2012 8:13 PM
To: Legislation, Uniform
Subject: R18 game Review (Again)

Hi There,

Im 37. Male, employed all my life and im a gamer.

I am also a criminal. I have downloaded a game that was banned in oppressive states such as Iran, Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Australia. Every other first world country offered its citizens the ability to purchase this game, legally. But not here, I had to download it off the net. That made me a criminal in your eyes.

I dont use violence, nor do I swear to my elders. But I do game, I have spent over $6000 on my computer the past month. Its my hobby, my passion.

I dont like religion My sister married a Muslim man, he seemed nice enough at the start. But now, years later my Father, my sister, and myself consistently get hounded to 'convert'. Why does he care what we believe in if it brings no harm to others? I see a direct parallel between no R18+ games in Australia and someone from another country and religion preaching that if I dont have the same belief system as he, then im going to hell as a bad person.

While I dont care about religion, I care about games. If you so choose to block this in any way, I will protest the best way I know how. With my right to vote.

Thank you for your time.

Simon Waters