Subject: One edit required for the uncorrected transcript

Dear Margaret,

Thank you for the opportunity to read over the uncorrected transcript of last Wednesday's hearing. There needs to be one amendment to ensure accuracy of the information recorded.

-On page 7, the sentence reads: "PricewaterhouseCoopers assessed the dollar-by-dollar success and return of those programs as this: for every dollar spent on Best Beginnings, the evaluated saving was $3.85. For every dollar spent on parent support, the evaluated saving was $7.22."

During the hearing, these figures were scrambled.

The correct sentence should read (changes in bold)

"PricewaterhouseCoopers assessed the dollar-by-dollar success and return of those programs in regional Western Australia as this: for every dollar spent on Best Beginnings, the evaluated saving was $7.22. For every dollar spent on parent support, the evaluated saving was $3.85."

Thank you so much for your assistance,
