SPEAKER OF LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY (continued), on Order and Procedure—

- Procedure on formal business before adoption of Address-in-Reply 25
- Private Members' business 2097
- Questions put to Ministers 1406
- Railway Industrial Agreements, on order 1055, 7, 64, 6, 1064, papers 1407
- Railway project. Belmont-Burswood, order 574
- Sitting Days and Hours, on order 30, procedure 31
- Suspending a member 1090
- Timber Trouble, Eastern Goldfields, urgency motion not permissible until Address-in-Reply disposed of 25
- Timber Trouble, Murchison, urgency m., on order 411, 423, 4
- Temporary Chairmen of Committees 612
- Tuberculosis in Cattle, urgency, procedure 721, 4, 34, 5
- Urgency motion for adjournment: Ruling as to written notice 721, as to Speaker's function to first decide upon obvious urgency 721, 4, 34

Rulings and Directions—

- Address-in-Reply cannot be anticipated by urgency motion; formal business only permitted 25
- Adjournment motion, not debatable 1409

Business of formal nature only is transacted before adoption of Address-in-Reply 25

Division being in progress a member may not leave the Chamber after the question is put 31

Election of Chairman of Committees, no particular form as to method of election 339

Hansard of current session cannot be quoted from 964, in special circumstances may be referred to, but proper authority for rulings is Notes and Proceedings 965

Judges must not be reflected on 91

May applies only when the Standing Orders do not make provision 299

Member is not entitled to proceed over and over again with the same argument 959

Money Bills Procedure: Message recommending appropriation may be brought down at any stage before third reading, advisable before Committee stage 494, 5, 6, 7; Bills imposing fees (Limited Partnership and Health Act Amendment) in certain cases not money Bills 495, 962; Bills imposing taxation must be introduced by Minister and originate in Assembly; but only Bills making appropriation of revenue need be recommended by Governor's Message 1565; practice of introducing as other Bills not to be set aside except by definite prohibition in Constitution Act or Standing Orders; presumably principles of British Constitution not included in our Act not binding, as being deemed inapplicable; therefore no legal obligation to set aside procedure adopted since 1899, and introduce Money Bills in Committee 864, though for the future the procedure of other Parliaments in this respect should be adopted 915, 62, 3; Standing Orders not sufficiently conclusive to render it obligatory; should be revised 1565. Further rulings in amplification 957, 8, 61, 2, 3, 9

"Obstructive tactics." Not in order to accuse another member of obstructive tactics 30

Personal Explanations not debatable 789. (See also "Urgency Motions" and "Privilege.")

Points of order: Not debatable 856, Mr. Speaker may invite opinions of members to help him give a correct judgment 890, 1; member may not proceed with the same arguments over and over again 959, point already decided cannot be raised again 963

Papers called for—An order of the House for the production of papers must be complied with 1298

Privilege: Question concerning member's private character is not a matter of urgency 453, 725, nor is it debatable under privilege 789. (See also "Urgency" and "Personal Explanations.")

Question cannot be put to the Chair 33, 963

Quorum: Sufficient if there is a quorum within the precincts of the House 1563

Ruling having been given and no dissent taken, a subsequent identical ruling cannot be dissented from 962

Select Committee: Motion to refer Bill to select committee cannot be submitted until second reading is passed 303

Suspension of Member: Resolution of Committee having been reported to the House question is put to House by Speaker without further motion 1090

Third reading can be taken immediately after Bill has been amended, if Standing Orders have been suspended, when a fair print is provided 2001

Unparliamentary to use the expression "a gang of sweaters" when referring to the Ministry 220

Urgency motion cannot intervene during debate on Address-in-Reply 25;

SPEAKER OF LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY—(continued), Rulings and Decisions—

notice of intention to move must be in writing 721; it is the Speaker's function to first satisfy himself as to obvious urgency, and if so satisfied to ask seven members to rise in support of mover 721, 4. 34; the mover might beforehand at a matter of courtesy acquaint Leader of House of intention to move 725; question concerning members' private character is not matter of urgency 725
