Questions Asked Today

*Notice GivenWednesday, 1 November 2017481. Hon Nick Goiran to the Minister for Environment representing the Minister for Police:

I refer to the article “Paedophilia, the curse that stalks Pilbara town of Roebourne”, published in The Australian on 23 September 2017, which stated that by June 2017 there were 184 victims of child sex offences, and I ask:

- (a) what is the number of alleged perpetrators of these offences;
- (b) further to (a), how many:
 - (i) have been interviewed;
 - (ii) have been summoned and/or charged;
 - (iii) are currently on remand;
 - (iv) are currently released on bail;
 - (v) residing in Roebourne;
 - (vi) residing with one or more of the victims;
 - (vii) have at any time breached a bail condition imposed in respect to an offence against one of the 184 victims; and
 - (viii) been convicted of one or more of the offences; and
- (c) further to (b)(iii), how many have a previous recorded history of breaching a bail condition?

482. Hon Robin Chapple to the Minister for Regional Development representing the Minister for Mines and Petroleum:

I refer to a letter, apparently dated 22 December 2015, signed by Bill Marmion MLA, Minister for Mines addressed to Mr Mark Kerr, Chairman Hawthorn Resources Ltd titled “Anglo Saxon Mining Proposal Reg ID 55921”, and ask:

- (a) is it correct the above referred to letter in part states “It is my understanding that the assessment is currently on hold pending written consent being obtained from the Pastoralist at Pinjin Station to conduct mining activities with buffer distances from pastoral infrastructure as specified in section 20(5) of the Mining Act 1978”;
- (b) if no to (a), what is specifically correct in terms of what was stated in the above referred to letter;
- (c) can the Minister explain why the former Minister for Mines wrote to Hawthorn Resources specifically stating that the assessment was on hold pending written consent being obtained from the Pastoralist Station to conduct mining activities within the buffer distances from pastoral infrastructure in section 20(5) of the Mining Act 1978;
- (d) if no to (c), why not;
- (e) are Hawthorn Resources Ltd authorized under the Mining Act 1978 to destroy, alter and damage yards/stockyards, water piping located both below and above the ground supplying occupied buildings with people residing and living in the buildings, fencing on the common reserve 10041 belonging to the Pinjin station, some of which has existed in one form or another for nearly 70 years;
- (f) if yes to (e), why; and
- (g) if no to (e), why not and which specific sections of the Mining Act 1978 prevent this?
