I refer to the Minister's partial answer of 15 August 2018, supplementing the partial answer to my questions without notice of 14 August 2018, regarding the Halidon Primary School, and I ask:

I refer to the Attorney General's comments in the Legislative Assembly on 16 August 2017, where he accused the Liberal and National parties of having 'joined forces in the Legislative Council to hinder the passage' of the so-called 'No Body, No Parole' Bill and send it off to a committee, a committee which in due course recommended amendments to which he ultimately agreed, and his repeated accusations that the Liberals and the Nationals 'are giving comfort to murderers!', and I ask:

- (a) since being appointed Attorney General, how many murderers has the Attorney General released from custody, and who, when, and for what periods of parole or supervised release;
- (b) which were released in accordance with, and which contrary to, recommendations of the Prisoners' Review Board or Supervised Release Board;
- (c) since being appointed Attorney General, how many persons detained under the Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996 held on charges of murder or other unlawful killing has the Attorney General released from custody, and who, when and for what periods;
- (d) which were released in accordance with, and which contrary to, recommendations of the Mentally Impaired Accused Review Board;
- (e) which of the persons released had killed children; and
- (f) which of the persons released were released contrary to the desires of the secondary victims or other next-of-kin?
