1574. Hon Dr Steve Thomas to the Minister for Environment; Disability Services:

- (1) What is the ultimate destination of plastic recyclable material recovered by Western Australia's local governments?
- (2) Does this vary for different local governments and, if so, can the Minister provide a breakdown of destination by local government jurisdiction?
- (3) How much of the plastic recyclable material recovered by local governments is stockpiled versus processed, and is there is any backlog in recyclable material awaiting processing?
- (4) Has any plastic recyclable material recovered by Western Australian local governments been exported interstate or overseas and, if so, what in what volumes?
- (5) What is Western Australia's capacity to process plastic recyclable material in both the State of Western Australia and can this capacity be referenced in each of our local governments areas?
