Division 2B — Provisions applicable to parliamentary proceeding

93A. Application of Division

This Division applies in relation to a parliamentary proceeding in which an operative is, or may be, required to give evidence obtained as an operative.

93B. Witness identity protection certificate to be given to Parliament

- (1) A witness identity protection certificate for an operative in relation to a parliamentary proceeding must be given —
  - (a) to the Clerk of the House of Parliament that established the parliamentary committee concerned; or
  - (b) if the parliamentary committee concerned was established by both Houses of Parliament, to the Clerk of each House of Parliament, before the operative gives evidence in the proceeding.

- (2) The certificate must be given at least 14 days before the day on which the operative is to give evidence, unless in the circumstances it is not reasonably practicable to do so.
- (3) The person who gives the certificate must give a copy of it to the operative before the day on which the operative is to give evidence.

93C. Effect of witness identity protection certificate

- (1) This section applies if a witness identity protection certificate for an operative is given in accordance with section 93B in relation to a parliamentary proceeding.
- (2) If this section applies —
  - (a) the operative may give evidence in the proceeding under the assumed name, or court name, stated in the certificate; and
  - (b) subject to any resolution passed under section 93D(4) —
    - (i) a question must not be asked of a witness, including the operative, that may lead to the disclosure of the operative's true identity or where the operative lives; and
    - (ii) a witness, including the operative, cannot be required to (and must not) answer a question, give evidence or provide information that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the operative's true identity or where the operative lives; and
    - (iii) a person involved in the proceeding must not make a statement that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the operative's true identity or where the operative lives.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b)(iii), a person involved in a proceeding includes —
- (a) a member of the parliamentary committee; and
  - (b) a party to the proceeding; and
  - (c) a person given leave to be heard or make submissions in the proceeding; and
  - (d) a lawyer representing a person referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) or a lawyer assisting the parliamentary committee in the proceeding; and
  - (e) any other person assisting the parliamentary committee in the proceeding; and
  - (f) a person acting in the execution of any process or the enforcement of any order in the proceeding.
- (4) If this section applies, any evidence given by the operative in the proceeding must be given in private.

93D. Disclosure of operative's true identity or location despite certificate

- (1) In this section —
- relevant House*, in relation to a parliamentary committee, means —
- (a) if the parliamentary committee was established by a House of Parliament — that House; or
  - (b) if the parliamentary committee was established by both Houses of Parliament — each House.
- (2) This section applies if a witness identity protection certificate for an operative is given in accordance with section 93B in relation to a parliamentary proceeding.
- (3) The parliamentary committee may seek the authorisation of the relevant House —
- (a) to ask a question of a witness, including the operative, that may lead to the disclosure of the operative's true identity or where the operative lives; or
  - (b) to require a witness, including the operative, to answer a question, give evidence or provide information that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the operative's true identity or where the operative lives; or
  - (c) for a person involved in the proceeding to make a statement that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the operative's true identity or where the operative lives.
- (4) The relevant House may pass a resolution authorising the doing of anything mentioned in subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c).
- (5) However, the relevant House must not pass a resolution unless satisfied about each of the following —
- (a) there is evidence that, if accepted, would substantially call into question the operative's credibility;
  - (b) it would be impracticable to test properly the credibility of the operative without allowing the risk of disclosure of, or disclosing, the operative's true identity or where the operative lives.

93E. Restrictions on content of reports to Parliament

If a witness identity protection certificate for an operative is given in accordance with section 93B in relation to a parliamentary proceeding, the parliamentary committee must not disclose in a report to a House of Parliament —

- (a) the operative's true identity or where the operative lives; or
- (b) information that may lead to the disclosure of the operative's identity or where the operative lives.

Division 2C — Other matters

Amendment — put and passed.

Clause 94.

The Attorney General representing the Minister for Police moved —

Page 77, lines 17 to 21 — To delete the lines and insert —

- (3) If the chief officer cancels the certificate —
  - (a) after it has been filed in a court and before the matter has been finalised by the court, the chief officer must immediately give written notice to the court and each party to the proceeding that the certificate has been cancelled; or
  - (b) after it has been given to the Clerk of a House of Parliament and before the matter has been finalised by the parliamentary committee concerned, the chief officer must immediately give written notice to the Clerk that the certificate has been cancelled.

Amendment — put and passed.

34I. Application of Subdivision

This Subdivision applies in relation to parliamentary proceedings in which a protected person is, or may be, required to give evidence.

34J. Effect of non-disclosure certificate

- (1) In this section —
- person involved*, in proceedings, includes —
- (a) a member of the parliamentary committee; and
  - (b) a party to the proceedings; and
  - (c) a person given leave to be heard or make submissions in the proceedings; and
  - (d) a lawyer representing a person referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) or a lawyer assisting the parliamentary committee in the proceedings; and

- (e) any other person assisting the parliamentary committee in the proceedings; and
  - (f) a person acting in the execution of any process or the enforcement of any order in the proceedings.
- (2) This section applies if a non-disclosure certificate for a protected person is given under section 34A(3)(b) in relation to parliamentary proceedings.
- (3) If this section applies, in the proceedings —
- (a) a question must not be asked of a witness, including the protected person, that may lead to the disclosure of the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both; and
  - (b) a witness, including the protected person, cannot be required to (and must not) answer a question, give evidence or provide information that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both; and
  - (c) a person involved in the proceedings must not make a statement that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both.
- (4) The parliamentary committee may disclose to each party to the proceedings —
- (a) that a non-disclosure certificate for a person who may be required to give evidence in the proceedings has been given; and
  - (b) what the certificate states.
- (5) If the parliamentary committee makes a disclosure about the non-disclosure certificate under subsection (4), the committee must also inform the parties of the effect of the certificate.
- (6) This section applies despite any other Act, but subject to section 34K.

34K. Disclosure of protected person's identity despite certificate

- (1) In this section —
- relevant House*, in relation to a parliamentary committee, means —
- (a) if the parliamentary committee was established by a House of Parliament — that House; or
  - (b) if the parliamentary committee was established by both Houses of Parliament — each House.
- (2) This section applies if a non-disclosure certificate for a protected person is given under section 34A(3)(b) in relation to parliamentary proceedings.
- (3) The parliamentary committee may seek the authorisation of the relevant House —
- (a) to ask a question of a witness, including the protected person, that may lead to the disclosure of the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both; or
  - (b) to require a witness, including the protected person, to answer a question, give evidence or provide information that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both; or

- (c) for a person involved in the proceedings to make a statement that discloses, or may lead to the disclosure of, the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both.
- (4) The relevant House may pass a resolution authorising the doing of anything mentioned in subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c).
- (5) However, the relevant House must not pass a resolution unless satisfied about each of the following —
  - (a) there is evidence that, if accepted, would substantially call into question the protected person's credibility;
  - (b) it would be impracticable to test properly the credibility of the protected person without allowing the risk of disclosure of, or disclosing, the protected person's protected identity or protected address or both.

34L. Restrictions on content of reports to Parliament

If a non-disclosure certificate for a protected person is given under section 34A(3)(b) in relation to parliamentary proceedings, the parliamentary committee must not disclose in a report to a House of Parliament —

- (a) the protected person's protected identity or protected address; or
- (b) information that may lead to the disclosure of the protected person's protected identity or protected address.
