2685. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 30 states that "the total approved plans for individuals with a neurological disability (primary disability) is 48", yet the total number of funded plans for individuals with a neurological disability is 406, how can the total number of funded plans be so significantly greater than the number of total approved plans?

2686. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

Why is the median annualised funding based on total plans, page 30 of the Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report, so low for psychiatric disabilities as compared to other primary disability categories?

2687. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 15 states that "34 new individuals deemed eligible have as their primary disability a psychiatric disability". The September quarterly report states "9 individuals were deemed eligible with a psychiatric disability as their primary disability", bringing the total to 43 individuals. However, the December 2014 quarterly report at page 6 states "44 individuals with a psychiatric disability (psychosocial disability) have been found eligible". Will the Minister explain the discrepancy in the figures?

2688. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

- (1) Of the 127 individuals in the 25-44 years of age category identified in the Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report as eligible for a plan, how many of these have accommodation funded as part of their plan?
- (2) How many of these individuals have identified, as part of their plan, the need for accommodation at some time in the future?

Notice Given Tuesday, 24 February 2015

- (3) Of the 158 individuals in the 45-64 years of age category, how many have accommodation funded as part of their plan?
- (4) Of the individuals identified in (3), how many have identified, as part of their plan, the need for accommodation at some time in the future?

The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial September 2014 quarterly report at page 12 states that “23 individuals were identified as having a developmental delay as their primary disability”, yet the Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 16 states the number of individuals as 15, what is the reason for the drop in the number of individuals from 23 to 15?

2690. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

- (1) The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 13 states “20% of individuals who had their plans reviewed opted to change from self-managed to combination managed”, how frequently are plans reviewed?
- (2) How many of the individuals identified in (1), requested an early review of their plan?
- (3) Why did the individuals identified in (1), opt to change from self-managed to combination managed plans?
- (4) How many of the 133 plans reviewed were organisation managed?
- (5) How many of the 133 plans reviewed were organisation managed by a mental health service provider?

2691. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

- (1) The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 11 states that “only 61% of total individuals are achieving plan goals”, why is this figure so low?
- (2) What is being done to increase the number of individuals achieving plan goals?

2692. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

The Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial December 2014 quarterly report at page 9 states “the support needs of the average individual being higher than expected”, what is the evidence supporting this claim?

2693. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

In relation to the National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial lower South West trial site, how many individuals eligible for support and with approved plans, with funding, changed providers during the quarter ending December 2014?

2694. Hon Adele Farina to the Minister for Disability Services:

With a fast growing number of service providers endorsed to operate in the Western Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme My Way Trial lower South West trial site, has any analysis been completed in respect to the future viability of the service providers?
